Rev. and Mrs. W. H. V. Walker Honoured on Fortieth Anniversary

Well Over 150 Attend Reception Saturday and Sunday — Recipients of Gifts

Baskets of gladioli, dahlias and 'mums adorned St. Andrew's Presbyterian Manse on the week-end, when Dr. and Mrs. Jack Walker, of Hamilton, and Dr. and Mrs. Rowan Walker, of Toronto, sponsored a reception in honour of their parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. V. Walker on the occasion of their fortieth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Walker is the former Olive Mae Rowan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rowan, of Bethany, and Mr. Walker is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, of Port Hope. They were married in Bethany Presbyterian Church at twelve o'clock noon October 2nd, 1918 by Dr. E. A. Thomson, Toronto. The bridesmaid was formerly Alice Ryley, of Bethany, and the groomsmen were Rev. W. A. Westcott, now of Malton, Ont.

Rev. and Mrs. Walker resided at Janetville prior to coming to Stirling twenty years ago. They have two sons, Dr. J. Walker, of Hamilton, and Dr. Rowan Walker, of Toronto.

Well over one hundred and fifty called at the Manse on Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon to extend congratulations and best wishes to the honoured couple, coming from Kingston, Belleville, Trenton, Peterborough, Millbrook, Campbellford, West Huntingdon and Stirling. Drs. Jack and Rowan Walker received the guests at the door.

The bride of forty years wore a clover coloured sheer crepe and lace dress over taffeta and a corsage of a ruby throated orchid. The bridesmaid, Mrs. James Turnbull, of Peterborough, was present and wore a dusty rose crepe dress.

The table was tastefully decorated with a centre of pink and white 'mums and candelabras with pink candles and a very attractive wedding cake. Mrs. J. R. Carr, of Port Hope, sister of the groom, and Mrs. M. H. Rowan, of Springville, sister-in-law of the bride, wearing corsages of roses, poured tea. The servers were Mrs. Jack Walker, Mrs. Rowan Walker, Miss Maycie Lang, of Toronto, and Miss Margaret Reid, of Peterborough. The neighbour ladies kindly assisted.

Turkey Dinner

At noon on Sunday a delicious turkey dinner was served to the immediate family and a number of guests, including Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carr, Port Hope; Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Rowan and Ivan, Springville; Miss Margaret Reid, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lang, Lindsay, and Miss Maycie Lang, Toronto.

The bride and groom of forty years were the recipients of numerous beautiful gifts, including an electric range from the family, and many congratulatory cards and messages. Rev. Walker's sister, Mrs. E. E. Piper, phoned her congratulations from Trenton, New Jersey.

Movies and flash pictures were taken during the reception.

A host of friends in Stirling and surrounding community will join in wishing Rev. and Mrs. Walker many more happy anniversaries.

Talked To Family On Anniversary

Something quite wonderful happened to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Strickland on the 27th of September, the occasion being their forty-seventh wedding anniversary. Their daughter, Peggy and family, in Vancouver; daughter, Thelma and family, in Windsor, Ont.; son Alex and his family, in Bloomfield, Ont.; and son Don and his family, in Cornwallis, Nova Scotia, all phoned, with their Dad and Mother in Stirling. Each family was able to talk and hear the others on the phone — just the same as if all the young ones were together with the Old Folks in the same room. The telephone company provided two extra telephones so the Old Folks could sit and enjoy the conversation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Moore Pembroke, Observe Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. "H. M. M." celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary on Tuesday, September 23rd. One of Ontario's best known newspaper teams, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore observed the day quietly at their home on Isabella Street, Pembroke. In the evening, a family dinner marked the occasion at the home of a niece, Mrs. John Ford and Mr. Ford.

Those present were Mr. Moore's relatives, a brother, Mr. I. A. Moore and Mrs. Moore, of Pembroke; two sisters, Mrs. Charlotte Stitt and Mrs. Alan Cameron, of Douglas; a nephew, Mr. John Stitt, of Renfrew; a niece, Mrs. James Ritchie and Reverend Ritchie, of Almonte; and a nephew, Mr. Wm. D. Moore, of Pembroke.

H. M. M. is undoubtedly the most familiar set of initials in the Ottawa Valley, the tag under which Mr. Moore has played a leading role in that district through his editorials in the Eganville Leader and not so long ago, the Pembroke Observer — editorials which were reprinted in all of Ontario's leading dailies.

Born in Renfrew, Mr. Moore has had a long and varied career as printer, publisher, song and short story writer and novelist. He learned the printing trade in Douglas and Eganville and then worked with an Ottawa lumber company for a season in Quebec. But printer's ink was in his veins and he returned to the trade on the Ingersoll Sun, writing at night for the Woodstock daily papers. For a short while he worked in Eganville and Pembroke and then was off to Trenton as foreman of the Courier. From there, he went to Cookstown to eventually take over that paper for back pay.

His next move was to Owen Sound as assistant editor of the Advertiser, a semi-weekly, but he was offered a better job as editor of the Smiths Falls News for the late James H. Ross. A short time there and he was off to the Canadian Soo to join C. C. Cliff in the job printing business.

Couple Wed

In 1908 he married the former Mabel Coleman, of Cookstown, Simcoe County and they settled in West Lambton, south of Sarnia where they lived for seven years. Poor health necessitated the sale of his business and he returned east to rejoin the Courier at Trenton as foreman. During that time he was advised to bring his plant to Eganville to revive the Enterprise which he did but only until he could find a better place for it — Deseronto — where he remained until May 1932.

Joint Affair

Mrs. Moore today looks back on a career in Deseronto that was a far cry from her millinery career — that of getting the paper out alone when the editor hung a sign on the door "Gone Fishing." Even the Compensation Board couldn't believe that one man and his wife could do all that was done in those days to deliver the home town paper in time but the investigator finally believed it when he saw it!

Selling out, the Moores took time off to spend the summer at Lake Dore and Douglas but he was back in business in January as publisher of the Arnprior Chronicle. Again he returned to Trenton, this time to assume ownership of the business. In September, 1944, he sold the Trenton paper to Oshawa interests and shortly afterwards went to Pembroke, presumably to retire. But Mrs. Moore has patiently kept her head while all around her, a man of ideas was upsetting the daily routine. She had learned 'ere this to take it all in stride and still find time to devote herself to the Women's League and the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church who honoured her Tuesday with a beautiful bouquet of yellow roses.

Mr. Moore's prolific talent was in demand at once in his new home writing for the Leader which had lost its editor, Dan Jones, and the Pembroke Observer when its editor was severely injured in a motor accident. Mr. Moore still writes under his familiar by-line in the Eganville paper and for the new semi-weekly in Trenton. He can claim a record of having published no less than eight weekly newspapers across Ontario between the St. Clair and Ottawa Rivers. In addition, he has written news and features for the Belleville Ontario Intelligencer, the London Free Press, the Toronto Globe and Star and other publications and lived to see his papers, the Deseronto Post and the Trenton Courier-Advocate classified by actual survey in their days as "the most quoted paper in Canada."

Rhymes by "Uncle Hy" became familiar words through radio broadcasts by Andy Clark and Maurice Boddington.

As a song writer, he was on the staff of a Toronto music publishing house. His "Sweet Nora Doon" was the hit of the Irish play "On the Banks of Killarney" which had a long run on Broadway. Advancing years could not stem the tide of a man of words and song as "We're in the Front Line Now," "Dear Dad" and "Mister Hitler" appeared during the last war.

Another Book

But he didn't have enough to do! His colorful short stories have enlivened many a Canadian magazine — Rod and Gun, the Family Herald, the Canadian Monthly, the Canadian Courier and a small magazine "Canadian Stories" which he published on his own to assist Canadian writers. His fiction has also been published in Argosy, All Story and Adventure. Recently, he has moved further afield receiving a cheque from New Zealand for a story which appeared in Argosy 40 years ago. Too, he has written several novelettes and seven book length novels, six of which have been used as serials in newspapers across Canada.

Sportsman

The 76-year-old spry and witty man of words has always had time to turn to his favorite hobby — sports. He believes in keeping fit. A lacrosse player when the game was at its best, he served for three years on the Ontario Association executive in Toronto and was president of the Central Ontario Association Lacrosse League, and the Trenton Athletic Association. Since moving to Pembroke, he has been identified principally with baseball reorganizing the local setup into the Ottawa Valley Baseball Association with four leagues.

Small cars are the Moore's favorite and this 50th year of life together has been crowned with the purchase of a gay two tone Hillman Minx. A busy man of words is ready to concede as they drive through the valley they know so well "that Mrs. Moore steers and H. M. M. drives." — Pembroke Observer.

Anniversary Services

Baptisms

The Sacrament of Baptism will be arranged for Sunday, October 12th. Parents please get in touch with Dr. Packman.

Promotion

A large number of parents were present at the Promotion Ceremony on Sunday, when St. Paul's Sunday School scholars passed to higher grades. The number of children present and a full staff pointed to a very finely organized school and good work done during the year.

Carmel Anniversary

Another very satisfying occasion with many friends present and the preaching at a very high order. We are grateful in particular to Mrs. Arthur Pyear for her excellent team who provided the singing items.

A Traveller's Note Book

A Land Fit For Traffic To Live In

Sooner or later the question was bound to come up. It showed a few days ago when a man engaged in regular travel was hauled before a Court and prosecuted for driving through a ploughed field. This he did, in order to draw attention to a mental state which had been adduced in him, by the difficulties of travel. He seems to have a real "boof." "Wherever I go" asked he, "what do I find? patches of complex machinery, cranes and miscellaneous contractors' paraphernalia. Signs 'Go Slow' 'Diversion Ahead' 'Beware Trucks Crossing' 'Road Under Construction' and what have you." Certainly at places it looks more like a military occupation than anything else.

Wet Wednesday

Whether or not Iceland would ever have engaged our attention had it not been for the very arbitrary action of claiming a twelve mile territorial limit off shore is anybody's guess. I guess not. We are not very interested in a spot where the finding of a tuft of grass would be reported in the next issue of a newspaper. Some features, however, of the country's life are interesting. There are 5,000 Americans there. These in a country of 160,000 population are conspicuous. It seems that the Icelanders are among those who want the best of both worlds. It is a "Wet" country except on Wednesdays. Wednesdays are "Dry" days. No liquor may be sold other than wine. However, I understand that on other days there is considerable drunkenness. Cold, and no trees to break the wind it has a harsh magnificence. A further comment might be to the effect that in Iceland there is no illiteracy and no prostitution, but it has a tidy rate of illegitimacy, the highest for thousands of miles around. The Icelanders are rather proud of it. "So long as you get married sometime it does not matter if there are a few children born out of wedlock. This dates back to the days when a priest or minister took a very long time to get to the Island — it might be two or three years. That is not surprising. There are records greater than this. One Church reports, A English Church, no sermon in twenty years.

Bill III Or Adapt

Many causes of stress are not easily handled or altered, a fact which decides many a man's fate. The law in the animal world is adapt or perish; in the human world, adapt or be ill. This means, you either alter your circumstances or adapt yourself to them. Let us suppose a man is ill at ease in his home, probably because unwanted people are there, he has nowhere else to go so he has to face this situation day in day out. He does not want to make a scene, that would upset his wife (should the unwanted be a mother-in-law). Most mothers-in-law are sensible creatures, there is the odd one who wants to run the house, interfere with the children, make decisions which are none of her business, fuss about the kitchen and advise everyone whether the advice is sought or not.

What is a man to do? What he generally does is keep quiet, swallow his rage and in doing so gets a pain in his mid-riff. This is the danger signal. Providing no organic change takes place in his gut, he may live a long time. The danger however is of a change taking place. He will then become the victim of internal disorder, nausea, stuffed feeling and probably end in vomiting. If he is a man of extraordinary insight and self-discipline and so able to handle the job himself, he may do so with satisfaction all round, otherwise he should see his doctor who usually knows more about these things than we laymen can possibly know. This business is something like asthmatic symptoms — prevention is better than a cure. Where such attacks are linked to mental tensions — the drill is — reduce the tension. Once the sick tendencies take root it is very difficult to uproot them.

Bawldered driver: "I wish Emily Post were here with us, we really ought to have brought her along. I think we have taken the wrong fork."

Come One, Come All Let's Register For Night School

Over a hundred attended a meeting held in Marmora High School on Thursday, September 25th to discuss the possibility of a Night School.

The Department of Education was represented by Mr. D. W. Maddocks, Department of Agriculture by S. Mac-Donald, Centre Hastings District High School Board by Mr. M. J. Corrigan and Marmora Chapter I.O.D.E. by Mrs. L. McGinnis.

After Mr. Maddocks and Mr. MacDonald spoke briefly on what the project would comprise there was an informal discussion and much interest shown.

A motion was then passed that Marmora Rural Community Night School be opened this Fall. Pamphlets showing courses were distributed and those interested asked to check first, second and third choices and to indicate the night preferred.

It was decided to appoint a committee to arrange and look after business involved by said project.

Following the meeting a committee meeting was held and the following appointed: Chairman, Mr. L. McGinnis; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. A. M. Jones; Secretary, Mrs. E. A. Manchester; Treasurer, Mr. George Baldwin.

To all those interested preliminary forms will be available at Marmora High School, Marmora Herald Office

Actual registration will take place in the High School on November 18th from 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Fee — $4.00.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

The World Exhibition in Brussels has excited the interest of people from every walk of life, and from every country, almost the entire exhibition is one impressive demonstration of what man can actually achieve, and of his ideals for the future.

The one display which is the outstanding exception, carries no man's name, but points to one person — Christ. The exhibit was decided upon by the United Bible Societies, and is devoted to the Book which proclaims the Good News — The Bible. Here an open Bible is displayed for anybody to turn over the leaves. Then follows a panel with one Bible text in twenty languages, each of them faced by a portrait of a person who speaks that language as his mother tongue.

The text is: "All things are yours; and you are Christ's; and Christ is God's." I Cor. 3: 21-23. Here people recognize their own tongue, and reflect on what it means to be a Christian in this world. This polyglot stand gives an impression of the Bible as a world book. This impression is further confirmed by a graph, which shows the march of Bible translation work since the time of the Reformation.

BIT OF FUN

A one-ring circus was visiting a town in the hills. The folk recognized all the instruments in the band except the slide trombone.

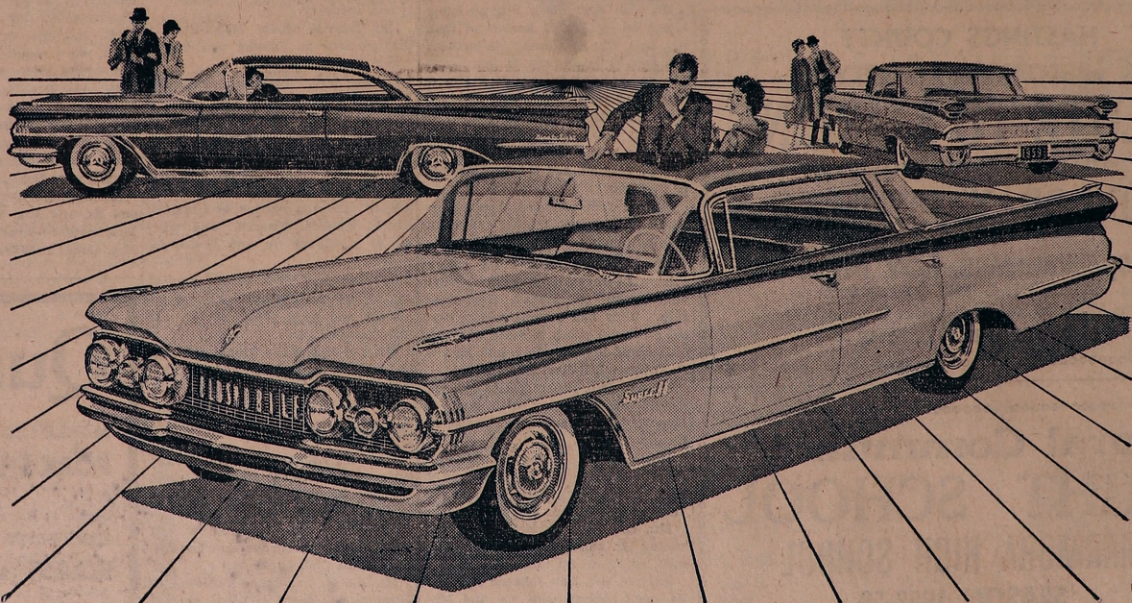

One old fellow watched the player for some time, then said: "There's a trick to it. He ain't really swallowing it."

In 1898 Canada's Sir William Mulock persuaded Britain and the other countries in the Empire to accept a two-cent or penny postage rate, which meant that thousands of people throughout the Empire were able to write one another two or three times as often as before.

A Letter To
The Editor

To The Stirling Council
Merchants and Residents

Dear Mr. Editor:

Do you people appreciate the business that the surrounding farmers have left in your town in the last 100 years?

If so, why do we receive summons so regularly by your local constable for such minor offences. I was asked to pay $5.00 because my parked car and trailer unloading grain at a local grist mill along with parked cars on the opposite side of the street was blocking traffic for only a very few minutes. How about it neighbours?

Yours truly,

Alex McCurdy

Gideons To Hold
Rally In Belleville
Next Year

The Gideon Ontario and Quebec Rally was held in Yorkminster Baptist Church in Toronto the past week-end, with a goodly number of the Gideons and the Ladies Auxiliary attending from as far west as the Lake Head and east to Montreal, with 317 setting down for the banquet that closed the Convention Saturday evening.

An invitation from the Belleville camp for the Rally to be held in Belleville next year was accepted, and it is hoped at that time to have Premier Manning of Alberta as the guest speaker.

The boys and girls in the public schools across the country look forward to the visit from the Gideons, who for years have been presenting a copy of the New Testament with the Psalms and Proverbs added, to the pupils of grade five. The fall and winter programme for the local Gideons is getting under way, and the boys and girls in the area around Belleville will not be overlooked.

Through the wide acceptance of the Gideon Memorial Plan by the Canadian public (a plan whereby loved ones and friends may pay tribute by dedicating Bibles in memory of those who have passed on) enabled the Gideons to place over 40,000 Bibles during the past year. Of that number 270 were placed through the Belleville Camp.

Those attending the rally from Belleville were President and Mrs. Angus Hannah, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson and Mr. Clayton Greatrix, Bloomfield.

15,000 Chinese

The 28th edition of the Vancouver Chinese Directory lists 15,000 Chinese in the city, an increase of 1,000 over last year.

The 320-page book, compiled and published by the Chinese Publicity Bureau Ltd., lists residents in English only but advertisements of business firms are in both English and Chinese.

There is not a single Chinese surname that begins with A and only five begin with B.

But when the reader gets to C, he runs into 1,500 Chows and 1,000 Chans.

The Wong family, with 3,000 members in the city, is still the largest family group. The Wongs are followed by the Lee family with 2,000 members and the Mahs with 1,700.

1959 Oldsmobile Goes On Display Friday at Stirling Motor Sales

Oldsmobile for 1959 has been completely restyled, with more glass area, more passenger and luggage space, and a host of engineering and accessory advancements. General Motors of Canada, Limited announced this week the 1959 Oldsmobile will be easier to steer and to park. Either of its two new engines will offer greater operating economy.

New models will be on display in dealer showrooms October 3rd.

There are two new hardtops this year: the Holiday SportSedan, a four-door family-size car and the two-door Holiday SportCoupe.

Total glass area on all models has been increased up to 36 percent. An extra large, heat-resistant rear window on the Holiday SportCoupe curves high into the roofline to give unparalleled visibility. Rear window glass area on this model measures 1792.5 square inches. On the Holiday SportSedan the rear window wraps around beneath the extended rear edge of the roof.

The new "Vista-Panoramic" windshield has up to 570 square inches more glass area and contours deep into the roofline offering an unhindered view of overhanging traffic signals. Electric windshield wipers, with a wider cleaning area, are standard equipment.

For 1959, Oldsmobile is offering 15 body styles in its Dynamic "88", Super "88" and "98" series. In each series are the Holiday SportCoupe and Holiday SportSedan, a four-door sedan and a convertible. In the Dynamic "88" series, in addition, there is a two-door sedan and a Fiesta station wagon. The Fiesta is also built in the Super "88" series.

All models are marked by their thin rooflines, with increased passenger compartment roominess and comfort. Shoulder room has been increased over four inches and yet the overall width of the car is increased less than an inch. Rear seat passengers have over an inch more leg room in the Dynamic "88" and Super "88" series. Trunk space has been increased up to 64 percent. In the "98", a new larger body, distinctively Oldsmobile, gives rear seat passengers 4 inches more leg room.

Oldsmobile's "Linear Look" for 1959 is apparent in the completely redesigned body and wide-spaced four-beam headlights set within a full-width grille of anodized aluminum.

For maximum protection, the rectangular patterned grille is recessed under the hood, well behind the leading edge of the bumper. Oldsmobile identification appears in bold block letters across the center of the grille. The new, circular parking lamps are located between each pair of headlights which provide better lighting from their new wide-apart spacing and closer-to-the-road location.

Sculptured twin booms sweep full-length along the body to give the car a look of mobility even when parked, and also serve as the key area for Oldsmobile's unique two-toning for 1959. Oldsmobile will offer 16 exterior "Magic Mirror" color finishes for 1959. These exceptionally durable acrylic base paints, formerly optional at extra cost, are now standard finishes on all models.

The cowl air intake grille is located on the hood and new ducts and outlets increase ventilating air flow up to 75 per cent. Incoming air now travels directly to special fresh air outlets in the inner shroud panels on each side of the front passenger compartment. Louvered outlets permit even distribution of cooling air throughout the interior.

To match the advances in styling, Oldsmobile for 1959 has developed two of the most responsive and economical Rocket engines since the first high-compression Rocket was introduced by Oldsmobile in 1949. Both are smoother and quieter in operation with a new cylinder block, longer cylinder bores, new reinforced aluminum pistons, connecting rods with greater bearing area, a larger intake valve and a more rigid crankshaft.

Equipped with a two-barrel carburetor, the new engine powering the Dynamic "88" series is rated at 270 horsepower with 300 lb.-ft. of torque. The Super "88" and "98" series are powered by a new Rocket with four-barrel carburetion which develops 315 horsepower with 435 lb.-ft. torque.

Economy of operation in both new engines has been improved through better carburetion, more efficient, freer "breathing" and a new automatic split choke system that will give greatly increased fuel economy especially during engine warm-up in cold weather operation.

Ride and cornering characteristics of the 1959 Oldsmobile have been further improved through use of a stronger and wider X-member frame; new wider tread both front and rear; new double-acting front suspension; new rear springs and wider-base rear suspension.

Oldsmobile's "Roto-Matic" power steering is completely new to give more power assistance and greater steering precision. Heart of the new system is a new rotary control valve that responds faster and requires only one pound of effort for straight-away steering control. In difficult parking situations, 50 per cent less effort is required than formerly. The new system is standard on the "98" series, and optional on the Super "88" and Dynamic "88" series.

Brake fade and brake lining wear have been reduced with Oldsmobile's new "Air-Scoop" brake design for 1959. This is accomplished by a large new flange which literally "scoops in" the cooling air around the brake drums and more efficiently cools them under the most severe driving conditions.

Offered as an optional accessory on all models is Oldsmobile's new Trans-Portable radio with push button tuning. This utility transistor radio plugs into the car's electrical system when in position and operates on its own long-life batteries when out of the car. When locked in position with the glove compartment door closed, it is identical in appearance to the stationary deluxe radio.

The glove compartment door and radio are a part of the newly balanced design of the "Twin-Contour" instrument panel which places the instrument cluster directly in front of the driver for greater convenience. The new "Safety-Spectrum" speedometer utilizes varying colors to help the driver maintain safe driving speeds. Speed is indicated by a moving band of color which is green from 0-35 m.p.h., orange from 35-65 m.p.h., and red above 65 m.p.h.

Cost of A Sheepskin

(By C. J. Harris)

The cost of going to college in this year of 1958 must be quite a shock to Canadians in their mid-forties, give or take a year or two, whose sons and daughters are now of an age to be at university. Such parents had their own college-entrance years in the depression thirties, when even an annual tuition fee of about $125 was a formidable sum of money. In those days a summer farm job if a youngster were lucky enough to find one, might pay $25 a month plus board and a whole summer's wages would barely cover a year's tuition.

Inflation, of course, has had its influence on the cost of higher education, for today's dollar is worth less than half the dollar of those other years. Even so, a survey by the Canadian Press of college fees across the country shows some startling figures. Memorial University of Newfoundland and St. Dunstan's of Charlottetown share the distinction of being the lowest-priced colleges in Canada, with average tuition at $150 a year. McGill, at Montreal, is the highest priced; the arts student there pays $550, engineering $700, medicine $750.

Between these are the country's biggest schools. The Universities of Montreal and Toronto, with more than 13,000 students each, are charging $375 and $380 respectively in arts, $525 and $546 in engineering and $525 and $596 in medicine. The University of British Columbia, with more than 10,000 students, has fees of $245, $296 and $450 in those courses.

In its estimate provided out-of-town students McGill advises an allowance of $750 for board and lodging plus $500 for such personal expenses as books and clothes. On that basis McGill's five-year engineering course would cost a student $9,650; a seven-year medical course, $14,000. On the other hand the University of Manitoba estimates the total annual cost to a student at $1,215, which is still $4,860 for a four-year arts course or $8,505 for medicine's seven years.

Despite these higher costs, obtaining the money for college must be a lot easier for today's student than it was for their parents. In the mid-thirties university enrolment in Canada was 35,000. This year the figure will be about 90,000. In that span of year the country's total population has increased by just over half. So the proportion of Canadians who are able to carry their schooling on to university is certainly much higher than ever in history.

Fuller Presbyterian Anniversary Services

The Presbyterian Church at Fuller held most successful anniversary services on Sunday. The guest minister was Rev. G. A. Stone, of Deseronto, who brought two wonderful messages.

In the morning service his text was "My God will supply all your needs." For the evening service he spoke on "Prepare to meet thy God." Both of these messages were well presented.

Those assisting in the musical part of the service were Mr. William Fish, who contributed two solos, "Great Is Thy Faithfulness" and "The Love of God." Mrs. Stone rendered a solo, "How I Adore Him." Miss Anne Redcliffe sang, "Is There Anyone To Help Us." The choir rendered the anthem, "The Fire of God is Burning in My Soul" and Miss Marion Stone sang as a solo, "How Great Thou Art."

This was the 61st anniversary of the Church. Mr. Earl Wannamaker is the regular minister.

Endeavour's Class

The Endeavour's Class held its September meeting at the home of Mr. H. R. Burke on Thursday evening. Mr. Robert Donnan, Pastor of the Pentecostal Church, Stirling, was the guest speaker and brought a wonderful message on the subject, "We Preach - Christ."

Mr. John Lainson presided over the programme and following a sing song of old fashioned hymns Arthur Wilson offered prayer and Mr. Clayton Wright read a portion of Scripture. Mr. and Mrs. George Dyson gave two duets and Mrs. William Grant gave a reading, "If God Should Come To Your House." Mrs. William Fitchett contributed a solo, "The Love of God."

The meeting closed with prayer and Mr. Burke thanked those who came to his home. Miss Bessie Hollinger and assistants served lunch.

Salem W.A.

The September meeting of Salem W.A. was held in the Church Hall. The President, Mrs. Murney Johnston, opened the meeting with the theme song and theme prayer. A verse of hymn 500 was sung.

Roll call showed 20 members and one visitor present. Roll call for next month will be answered by a verse in the Bible containing the word "thank." An invitation to attend Springbrook tea and bazaar was received. The Springbrook ladies were also invited to the November meeting when they will provide the programme.

Mrs. George Sine reported for the painting committee, asking for a bee to be held on the following Tuesday. Mrs. A. Twiddy reported on stacking chairs and was instructed to write regarding prices. The committee have permission to buy at least two dozen chairs. Plans were made to hold a quilting in October.

Mrs. Bert Sine took charge of the programme. Hymn 356 was sung. Mrs. Mayo read the Scripture Lesson, Matthew 25: 14-29. The Meditation was given by Mrs. Lorne Hagerman, followed by prayer by Mrs. Mumby. A reading, "Home Coming," was given by Mrs. M. Wickens. Mrs. Geo. Sine rendered a solo with guitar accompaniment, "When He Reached Out His Hand For Me."

Mrs. Wm. Donald gave the topic on "Racial Brotherhood," which was very interesting at this time.

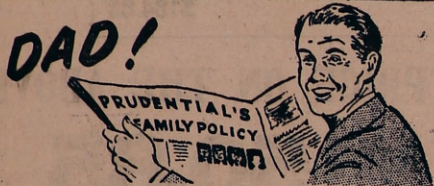

Mrs. Harold Holden expressed thanks to the hostess, Mrs. Bert Heagle and her assistants and all who helped make the afternoon a success.

Trent System Delegates Seek Canal Improvement

A brief calling for $5,000,000 in construction and the re-charting of the Trent Canal System was endorsed by representatives of eight Canal municipalities at Orillia Saturday. Other municipalities are expected to support the petition when it is presented to them in the near future.

Initiated during August by the Orillia Chamber of Commerce, the brief urges the federal government to construct lift locks at Swift Rapids and Big Chute to replace the present marine railways built about 1915 and complete re-charting of the system. More men on locks, bridges and dams for better water and fish conservation control are also urged.

Delegates at the conference from Orillia, Trenton, Peterborough, Midland, Victoria Harbour, Penetang, Lakefield and the Georgian Bay Development Association said in endorsing the brief that bringing the Trent up to date in these respects would increase pleasure craft traffic and help balance the adverse tourist trade existing between Canada and the U.S.

HONEY CROP

31 PERCENT LESS

Canadian honey production will be 31 percent less than last year, according to the Canadian Beekeepers' Council with headquarters at Teasdale, Sask. This is their final estimate for the crop year. The council represents 17,000 beekeepers across Canada. Estimated total production for 1958 is 21,327,000 pounds. The Saskatchewan crop is down 25 percent.

A main factor in the decline this year was excessive moisture in Ontario and Quebec during the summer, and dry weather in Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

PINKKEY IN CATTLE COMMON THIS FALL

Fall and early winter are the seasons when pinkeye is the most common in cattle. Even though pinkeye seldom causes death, the Ontario Veterinary College points out that it does cause a considerable amount of loss in body weight and reduced production.

Pinkeye is an infectious disease which is spread by direct contact, dust, or insects. Cattle of any age, size or sex are subject to the disease. Recovery from an attack does not necessarily prevent further attacks in the animal.

The symptoms include a watery discharge from inflamed eyes and squinting because of sensitivity to light. Membranes become very swollen and red. Frequently there is a temporary blindness as a result of the disease.

The Ontario Veterinary College recommends that infected animals be isolated away from sunlight and receive prompt treatment by a veterinarian.

Sudden application of your brakes should be followed invariably and instantaneously, by a glance in the rear view mirror. The danger from behind may be greater than the danger ahead, warns the Ontario Safety League.

Skiltools To Build Plant At Trenton

James A. McGarey, Vice-President of Skil Corporation, Chicago, and head of Skiltools Limited, the corporation's Canadian operation, has announced that the company will build a plant at Trenton, Ontario, to manufacture Skil portable electric tools for a rapidly expanding market in this country.

Skil Corporation, which recently announced a record-breaking increase in sales in the United States and a corresponding increase in Canadian sales, is one of the world's largest manufacturers of portable electric tools. The corporation came to Canada in 1946 and established Skiltools Limited in small rented quarters in Toronto. The company expanded quickly, opening a sales office in Montreal in 1948, building its own plant in Toronto in 1950, and opened a sales office and a warehouse in Vancouver in 1954.

Construction of the new Canadian plant at Trenton is expected to get underway within the next few months.

What Others Say

SAVING ON TIPS

(W. L. Clark in Windsor Star)

On advantage the motels have over hotels is the saving on tips. In the hotels there is an army of people with hand extended, each one looking for backsheesh.

In the motels people drive up, park their cars and tote their own bags a few feet into the living quarters. They do it themselves and save the tips. There is no parking problem, neither is there any tip to take the car to a garage, then storage charges for the auto.

But, the motels will have to watch out. They are raising their prices and the charge gets steeper and steeper. Costs have been creeping up.

One of the troubles is that some operators figure they will charge all the traffic will bear. That makes a short-time killing but is not so good for long-time and repeat business.

THE LAW WILL BE SWIFT TO PUNISH AND TO PROTECT

(Pembroke Observer)

Out of Old Bailey, the world's most famous court, have once again come words to enlighten and guide not only the people of the United Kingdom, but the masses of mankind around the world.

Soft-spoken Mr. Justice Salmon uttered them as he passed sentence on nine white youths held responsible for the start of race riots in the Notting Hill district, riots which started and disgusted a nation priding itself on its lack of racial prejudice.

These words which will be long remembered, and often quoted, expressing the ability of British justice to act promptly and capably when the nation's peace is threatened:

"Everyone, irrespective of the color of their skins, is entitled to walk through our streets in peace, with their heads erect and free from fear."

"As far as the law is concerned, you are entitled to think what you like, however vile your thoughts; to feel what you like, however brutal and debased your emotions; to say what you like, providing you do not infringe the rights of others and imperil the Queen's peace."

"But once you translate your dark thoughts and brutal feelings into savage acts such as these, the law will be swift to punish you, and to protect your victims."

"I bear in mind what has been said on your behalf. You are young."

"As it is, I am determined that you and anyone who may be tempted to follow your evil example, shall clearly understand that crimes such as these will not be tolerated in this country, but will inevitably meet in these courts with the punishment that they so justly deserve."

The nine youths, ranging in age from 17 to 20, were sentenced each to four years imprisonment. Several sentences, some may say, but reflecting the seriousness with which a nation regarded what the accused themselves described as "nigger-hunting," and reflecting, too, in the words of Mr. Justice Salmon, the court's ability to be swift to punish and to protect.

KNOWLEDGE FIRST,

THEN SKILL

(Canadink)

Knowledge can be had quickly, but skill takes time. And the rule is that knowledge must come first.

A golfer or a billiard player can learn the rules of the game in a short time, but he must play hundreds of times before he acquires skill.

There can be no skill without knowledge. A farmer can be as industrious as a bee, but if he hasn't learned the rules of good farming, he will not make much money per acre.

There are still many men who say

OUT OF THIS WORLD

Rod Coneybeare, writer and narrator of his tales of adventure, entertains listeners to the Dominion network of the CBC weekly programme on Mondays with his exciting fantasies and science-fiction stories. Each complete in itself, the tales are designed to produce a good old-fashioned chill but often with as much laughter as fright.

"Book knowledge is of no use to me. I learn how to do a job by doing it. I learn from my own experience."

He says this because he has never learned that knowledge comes before skill.

All professional men know this.

Every dentist knows it, and every architect. But business men have been slow to see that as much knowledge is needed for a business as for a profession.

A man starts a small shop, for instance, without having acquired any knowledge of the art of retailing. He thinks he can acquire skill as he goes along. But what he will really learn is what not to do.

Business has its rules, and the chances are more than ten to one that a man will not find out these rules by his own experience.

Only a few born musicians can learn to play the piano by strumming on it. Nearly everyone needs to be taught.

This is as true of business as it is of music, but as yet this fact is not generally accepted. Knowledge first, then skill.

CANADIAN SPEECH

(Peterborough Examiner)

The United Church has announced that it will take steps to improve the speech of its ministers. We applaud this decision; if only half the pulpits in Canada were to afford examples of good speech the effect would be to confer a permanent benefit on this country.

Summer Best In The West

Go West for sunshine. Summer, 1955, goes in the record books as one in which the West grabbed more than its share of fine weather.

For most of the eastern provinces it was a raincoats-and-umbrellas summer.

Parts of the Maritimes had twice their normal rainfall. Toronto had only three fine week-ends; Ottawa squelched through its heaviest July rain this century.

But West coasters basked in more than 200 hours of extra sunshine. Alberta had its fourth warmest summer on record and Manitoba its sunniest June in history. Detailed figures for Quebec were not available.

The downpours of August and September more than outweighed below-average rainfall in June and July.

June had 2.19 inches against 2.7 normal in Toronto, July 2.51 against 2.7, August 4.25 against 2.39, and September already had more than four inches compared with the month's normal 2.67.

July provided only 240 hours sunshine compared to the normal 289. June was better with 258 hours against the average 265, and August well above the average with 295.8 hours against the normal 260.8.

June was cold, averaging 61 degrees against the normal 65.6, but July and August were within fractions of the normal 70 and 68 degree levels, and September so far slightly above average.

Information To Be Procured On Establishment of Planning Board

To Ask The County To Extend Development Road—Regular Meeting Monday

Following a discussion on the advisability of having a zoning plan for the Village, Council instructed Clerk Mallory to write the Ontario Department of Planning and Development for all information concerning the establishment of a local Planning Board.

Reeve J. V. Holt pointed out that the building of homes at the extreme limits of the Village was costing and would continue to cost the Village too much to provide water and sewage services, whereas if building could be confined to a well-planned area these services could be provided at less cost and in return would provide considerable more revenue.

Don W. Rodgers also spoke on the matter, stating prospective new home owners were reluctant to spend $15,000 or more on a new home in an area where there was no building regulations. There appeared to be need for a new sub-division and if the Village had an overall plan it would prove an inducement to others to build here.

Reeve J. V. Holt presided and Councillors K. Ray, W. L. Pollock, A. Packman and H. R. Tompkins were in attendance.

Chief Constable W. Sutherland presented his monthly report and requested a new supply of tickets for traffic infractions. The report showed three fines for traffic infractions and seventeen warnings given motorists in September. His report was adopted.

A discussion relating to the amount of fine to be levied for various traffic infractions resulted in a $2.00 penalty being set for infractions, with the exception of parking in front of a fire hydrant and obstructing traffic, which were set at three dollars.

Mr. Alex McCurdy addressed Council regarding a fine for a traffic violation and subsequent argument with the Constable. No action was taken by Council.

Clerk F. R. Mallory reported receipt of a cheque for $200.60 from the Department of Municipal Affairs.

The following accounts were presented as follows:

R. A. Patterson, $38.50; Harry Mor-

On motion of Councillors Ray and Pollock the Clerk was instructed to make formal request to the County Road Committee to have this done.

Following discussion of a number of minor items of business Council adjourned.

Win Over Tweed

Roger Smith started the ball rolling for Stirling in Tweed on Friday last when he ran the opening kick-off for a touchdown. Throughout the game Smith scored twice more on forward passes from Keith Hansen to register 18 of Stirling's 21 points. The remaining 3 points were awarded for a safety touch and a rouge. Stirling came out the victor with a count of 21 to 12.

Lose To Madoc

On Tuesday Stirling suffered a defeat at the hands of Madoc when the two teams met on Madoc's semi-concrete gridiron. Although Madoc was penalized more than once for "roughing," they continued to use their elbows, knees and "piling on" tactics after the whistle to a good advantage. Stirling, who never have more than just enough players, were forced to use men who were so well battered that they should have been on the sidelines. Let's hope that on our field with stricter officiating, it will be a different story.

Volley Ball

In Stirling last Thursday Joanne Reid and Carol Ray set the pace for the local seniors throughout the majority of the game, each scoring 13 points. It was not until the last few minutes that Stirling lost their edge. Reid and allowed Madoc to emerge the victors with a score of 37-36.

Sparked by Jean Tompkins' 22 points, the Junior girls rallied to trounce Madoc 69 to 22.

Mrs. A. Packman Presents Novelty Mystery Program at St. Paul's W.A.

"Thanksgiving" Is Theme — Musical Skit Presented By Group — Refreshments

The ladies room in the new wing of St. Paul's United Church was profusely decorated with autumn leaves, fruit and vegetables for the Thanksgiving meeting of St. Paul's Woman's Association on Tuesday afternoon, October 7th, with Mrs. S. J. Elliott acting as hostess.

The President, Mrs. R. A. Patterson, opened the meeting with the singing of the Doxology and prayer; also graciously welcomed the large group of ladies in attendance, introducing Mrs. Young and Mrs. Irwin, newcomers to the meeting.

After the business part of the meeting was conducted, Mrs. Patterson asked Mrs. A. Packman, programme convener, to take charge. The theme for the afternoon was based on "Thanksgiving" and was carried out with a large cross at the front of the room decorated with white and scarlet, reminding the members of the text, "Though your sins be as scarlet they shall be as white as snow." The hymn, "For Thy Mercy and Thy Grace" was sung with Mrs. H. West at the piano, followed by prayer by Mrs. Packman.

Mrs. W. Wilkins read the scripture lesson taken from the 40th chapter of Isaiah, verses 3 to 8 and verse 28. Mrs. Jas. Sharpe gave some very fine thoughts on "Thanksgiving," mentioning many things one should be thankful for and closed her talk with a thanksgiving prayer.

The "Mystery Box" was then opened by Mrs. Packman and several members came forward to draw out parcels, some with verses pertaining to Bible passages. One revealed a large key, representing "Key to Worship." Another was a message from "Royalty." One read by Mrs. R. A. Patterson contained a very appreciative note to the faithful and efficient treasurer of the W.A., Mrs. H. Wells. Mrs. C. Macklin drew an envelope which had enclosed a pretty handkerchief and words of appreciation to the very capable President, Mrs. R. A. Patterson. The remainder of the mysteries were drawn by Mrs. H. David, Mrs. V. Richardson, Mrs. J. B. Hough, Mrs. H. Donnan and Mrs. H. Wells.

A short musical skit was well given by Mrs. H. West, Mrs. E. Warren, Mrs. W. Brown and Mrs. G. Finkle in costumes, which closed by all singing "Count Your Many Blessings."

One verse of the hymn, "Sing to the Lord of Harvest," brought the programme to a close and Mrs. Packman pronounced the benediction. Mrs. R. A. Patterson on behalf of all present thanked Mrs. Packman and her group for the fun and inspiration this meeting had given and for the time spent in preparing such a novel programme.

The ladies were seated at tables for a delicious lunch and cup of tea.

Father Son Bound, Gagged By Armed Men At Frankford

Provincial Police from Belleville and Peterborough districts are searching for three armed men who Sunday evening bound and gagged a Frankford man and his 17-year-old son at their farm home on the outskirts of the Village and escaped with about $30.00.

Roadblocks in the entire Frankford area were set up by police after the alarm was given, but police reported the three wanted men had still not been located. The men were said armed with Luger automatic pistols.

Two of the men were described as being between 25 and 30 years of age, one short and heavy set and the other of average build. The third man is about 18 and has sharp, thin features.

Held up in the farm home on No. 33 Highway, just north of the village were Herbert Howard, age about 65, and his son, Harry.

Police said that the three men waited for Harry Howard and jumped him as he returned home from the village about nine o'clock. At gunpoint they forced him to open the door, then forced their way into the house where Mr. Howard was watching television.

Mr. Howard and his son were bound and gagged and forced to lie on the floor. There they were guarded by one of the men armed with a Luger, while the other two ransacked the Howard home looking for money.

Letter To Editor

The Editor:

I've chosen the Thanksgiving season to bring your attention to a matter for which so far we cannot give thanks; namely, the defeat of muscular dystrophy.

We estimate about 10,000 Canadians, mostly children, are suffering from this progressive and crippling disease of the muscles. Few of the child victims will live beyond adolescence. So far there is no known cure.

Our figure of 10,000 is merely an estimate because many parents aren't aware that their children have MD.

These people should know that an association exists in Canada whose function is to help them to find out if they have a victim of MD in the family and to assist them in every way until a cure is found. This body, of whom I am honorary chairman, is the Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada. They are spending thousands each year on research to find a cure. By publishing this letter and encouraging your readers to let us know of cases in their families, their circle or friends, or their practices, you will be making a much needed contribution to the work already in progress aimed at defeating this disease.

Information will be gratefully received by The Muscular Dystrophy Association of Canada, 137 Wellington Street West, Toronto, and forwarded to local chapters and committees across the country.

Yours sincerely,
GUS RYDER,
Honorary Chairman

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

On October 6th, 1954, a committee called Biblemission (Bible Mission) was formed in Germany by the Bible Societies. Its function is to provide Scriptures among individuals and groups who are in physical or spiritual need today, as the result of what they have suffered.

The service of Bible distribution is primarily directed towards exiles and refugees in Western Germany, and in West Berlin. This Twentieth Century has been called "the century of the homeless." Since August, 1945, 18 million Germans have lost their homeland. By June, 1956, every fifth inhabitant of Western Germany was an exile or refugee. During 1957, 265,000 people from Eastern Germany fled to Western Germany, most of them carrying only a cardboard box with a few sandwiches and some pieces of underwear. Anything else would make them suspect in the eyes of the police where they cross the frontier. For most of them their future is absolutely unknown.

These people begin to ask about the meaning of their life and their relationship to God. Many find the answer in Bibles given them; since 1954, the Bible Mission has provided over 307,000 Scriptures.

The younger you are the easier it is

That's what the middle-aged "duffers" say on the golf course when a teenager breaks 80 for the first time.

It's the same story with family protection. The younger you are when you first arrange it, the more likely you are to be insurable. And the younger you are, the lower the premiums, too.

The Mutual Life of Canada is helping thousands of young Canadians plan for future security. Talk to a Mutual of Canada man soon and he'll show you how Mutual's outstanding dividend record really pays off for the young man on his way up.

A Traveller's Note Book

Long, lean and low in the water. I watched a canal boat some time ago and began to think upon the life the men lived upon it. This probably came to mind because we were not far from a city in which considerable numbers of men were walking about or standing in groups as a result of the strike in one of the city's great factories. While they were lounging in the good cause of a 40 hour week, I reflected on the farmer and the boat men. What a life they live — endless, slow, a steady pilgrimage from wharf to wharf. The day begins at five thirty, and ends when it is time to sleep. It is divided into miles rather than into hours until with dusk they tie up at a tiny waterside shed and go below to bunk. I ask, are these the last of the serfs, or, are they like the farmer, just not afraid to do a bit of work?

This gives rise to another life of thought — most lawyers would be out of work if we all told the truth. Dressed To Kill

What a difference clothes do make. I have been trying to calculate the number of men and women in uniforms of different states, the number is staggering and threatens to get more so. And what a relief it would be to regain that post-war attitude when men were only too pleased to get out of it rather than stay with it. The day when you wandered onto a farm yard and found a worker in an old tunic coming at you with what looked like a tommy-gun but which turned out to be a pitch fork, or when you saw a fellow coming down the road in a camouflaged gas cape.

The Acquisitive Impulse

I suppose a man saves for specific well-defined purposes, nobody saves for fun apart from misers. Generally there is a purpose behind this acquisitiveness, so by habit and training the middle class (O yes, I assure you we have them) is conditioned to saving.

But not only money is involved. I know a person who saves rope; another who saves nails; a lot more who would never dream of throwing anything away on the principle that everything comes in handy every seven years. The only question troubling my mind today is: Why are governments always on the grab?

Programme

The programme on "Home Economics and Health" followed with Mrs. Harry Vandervoort in charge and she read an appropriate poem on "Health." Mrs. Philip Conley officiated at the piano for the sing-song. The roll call, "My most annoying household task," centred around dusting and dishwashing and other jobs. Those who did not wear a print dress paid a fine to the sick fund.

Mrs. Roy Tucker read an article on the theme "The heart of the house is the livable farm kitchen." Mrs. Gilbert Finkle gave a very interesting demonstration on "Smocking." A contest, "Parts of the Body" was thought-provoking.

After the singing of the Queen the hostess and lunch conveners served light refreshments and Mrs. Percy Craighead voiced a thank you for programme, demonstration and lunch.

Bank Robbers At Hastings

The hunt continues for two masked, armed men who held up the Hastings branch of the Royal Bank of Canada a minute before closing time Thursday afternoon of last week and escaped with $4,887 in cash.

Later found abandoned in a ravine on

They made their get-away in a stolen car, driven by a third man. It was a sideroad two and a half miles east of Hastings.

Within a few minutes of the alarm being given provincial police set up roadblocks at strategic intersections in the district. But it is believed the bandits eluded them by driving a second car which had been hidden on the sideroad where the first one was abandoned.

While a third man sat at the wheel of the stolen car, the two gunmen pushed their way into the bank at exactly 2.59 p.m., a minute before closing time. Both were dressed in green coveralls, wore painters' caps and disguised their features with silk stocking masks. Both carried pistols.

Springbrook W.A. Sponsors Successful Bazaar

The annual fall tea and bazaar sponsored by the Women's Association of Springbrook United Church was held on Friday afternoon, September 26th in the Orange Hall, Springbrook.

Ladies were present from St. Andrew's, Marmora; St. Mark's, Bonarlaw; Gospel Hall, Springbrook; St. Thomas, Salem, Carmel, Bethel, St. Paul's Stirling, Hoard's Station, Wellman's Corners, Mount Pleasant, Stanwood and Rylstone.

Autumn coloured maple leaves and baskets of gladioli, dahlias, asters and zinnias were used as attractive decorations. The tables were laden with various goods for sale placed down the centre of the main floor, with the seats arranged at each side.

The guests were met at the door by the reception committee, Mrs. Carman Sine, President, Mrs. H. E. Beare, Mrs. Sanford Meiklejohn and Mrs. Clayton Burkitt; while Mrs. Reg. McKeown and Mrs. Gerald Broadworth had charge of the admissions.

The President, Mrs. Carman Sine, was in charge of the afternoon, and extended a welcome to all. Mrs. J. McKeown presided at the piano and the theme song was used as the opening number.

The devotional service was conducted by Mrs. Beare. Following the call to worship the hymn, "For the Beauty of the Earth" was sung. The Scripture, taken from II Corinthians 9: 6-15, was read by Mrs. Gordon Webb, who offered a prayer. Hymn, "Come Ye Thankful People Come" was sung. The devotional period closed with a prayer by Mrs. Beare.

Programme The programme for the afternoon consisted of each organization contributing a number as follows: Readings, "Thanksgiving," by Miss E. As it was the birthday of Mrs. Geo. Watson all joined in singing "Happy Birthday."

Guest Speaker Mrs. Clayton Burkitt capably introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. R. C. Jackson, of Madoc, President of the Woman's Association of Belleville Presbytery.

Mrs. Jackson chose as her theme, "What is God doing everyday?" and furthered by saying the success of a Woman's Association is not only in membership and financial aims, but the spreading of the Christian spirit. She urged each and everyone to be a fellow worker for God.

Rev. Beare extended thanks to Mrs. Jackson on behalf of all ladies present and officially of the bazaar.

Those in charge of the various booths were:

silver birch, copper beech, tap-rooted trees, and others difficult to move are better left until spring. When conifers are planted, added precautions, such as a burlap screen, should be taken to protect them from the effects of severe winter weather. The fall is the season to plant tulips, daffodils, hyacinths, crocus, and all spring-flowering bulbs, states the O.A.C. authority. Planting a bulb three times its own depth as a reasonably safe rule. Protection by mulching is advisable for all nursery stock planted in the fall.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

NEW BROADCASTING ACT

Once in the dear dead days beyond recall I was a radio announcer, and gained some measure of fame for the number and variety of my boners. I shudder even today when I recall that in time paid for by the tea manufacturers, where I was supposed to say, "It's four o'clock — now's the time for a good cup of tea," I got my wires crossed and announced, "It's four o'clock — now's the time for a good cup of coffee."

Fortunately, my boss and the tea people were mighty good sports, and I didn't get fired. Perhaps that willingness to put up with my bungling, left me with a soft spot in my heart for the industry, although I know its weaknesses better than most folk do.

One of those weaknesses ought to be corrected, to some extent, by the new broadcasting legislation. That is the pervasive fear of CBC which hangs like a shroud over private broadcasters. CBC officials did have tremendous power over their private competitors. They rarely abused the power; but it was there, and though seldom used it was constantly active. Some very poor broadcasting resulted.

The fact became obvious that the broadcaster who settled back and simply played gramophone recordings was safe, could make good money, and did not run into difficulties with CBC. However, the station with opinions, eager to do things, seemed to rub CBC the wrong way. Rubbing CBC the wrong way proved very costly to stations like CFRB Toronto and CFCN Calgary.

The new separate board will govern, both CBC and private broadcasting impartially. While not a perfect set-up, it is an improvement which should mean more encouragement for the good things private broadcasters claim they wish to do and stern rebukes for abuses.

It could lead eventually to less government coddling of the broadcast industry. A subsidized broadcasting system simply cannot be forthright or independent — and the system is now subsidized to the tune of millions of dollars annually in taxes, even though it also gets millions in advertising revenue. How can listeners or viewers trust opinions or news from an industry so deeply involved in government handouts?

Private broadcasters should now operate with less fear. They should be able to build a tradition which could win them still more freedom. They should willingly take on more of the load — and the cost — of providing education and entertainment, making it unnecessary for the government to pour so much money into broadcasting each year. If they do these things — and they are foolish if they fail to do them — the new legislation will prove its worth.

Ontario Older Boys' Parliament

The 33rd session of the Ontario Older Boys' Parliament will convene December 26th to 31st, 1958, at McMaster University, Hamilton, Ontario.

Nominations for members close on November 1st.

Those eligible for nominations are boys who:

(1) Have reached his 16th but not his 21st birthday by December 1st.

(2) Each member of parliament shall be a member in regular attendance at Sunday School which participates in some form of related church week-day activity, or a teacher of a Sunday School class, or a leader of a Christ-centred boys' group. He shall attend 75 percent of his class and group meetings.

(3) A candidate shall not be a user of alcoholic beverages.

(4) Each candidate for membership in the parliament shall sign nomination papers, certifying that he fulfills all the personal requirements set forth in the Parliament Act; that he believes Jesus has revealed life at its highest and best for both the individual and society; that he believes the central purpose of Boys' Parliament is to help boys to be Christ-like, and that his acceptance of the nomination is an expression of his desire to assist in the realization of this purpose. This statement shall be endorsed by any one of — Sunday School teacher, Superintendent, mentor, Y.M.C.A. secretary or school principal.

(5) Because members of parliament are in position of leadership and as boys have great influence with other boys, each candidate for parliament shall be a Christian boy and a statement shall be signed by the minister of the church he attends.

Sunday School boys, 12 to 20 years of age may vote.

Voters' lists must reach the District Returning Officer, Rev. H. E. Beare, Springbrook, by November 17th, signed by the Sunday School Superintendent, teacher or group leader.

Fire Destroys Barn, Contents Near Frankford

Cause of a fire that destroyed the barn of Raymond MacKenzie, of R.R. 2, Frankford, is unknown.

The fire broke out at 5 p.m. Saturday and was discovered by Mr. MacKenzie. No estimate of the damage was available but the MacKenzie loss was heavy with as much as 800 bushels of grain in the barn, two wagons, one of which had a new load of lumber on it, much of the farm machinery and a few hens.

Mr. MacKenzie expressed amazement on how the fire started as there were no lanterns lit in the barn and no person had been inside who smoked. The barn was insured, but only slightly.

Ont. Medical Assoc. Discuss Insurance

"Members of the medical profession have the duty of making sure that all elements of medical practice which are worthy are preserved; that the application of insurance techniques do not result in a deterioration of the quality of medical care or interfere with the doctor-patient relationship which is the basis of our present high standard of medical care."

This was the opinion expressed by Dr. W. W. Baldwin, of Brooklyn, president-elect of the Ontario Medical Association, to delegates attending the annual meeting of District No. 6 of the O.M.A. on October 7th and 8th at Cobourg. Doctors were present from Durham, Hastings, Northumberland, Peterborough, Prince Edward and Victoria Counties.

Dr. Baldwin said that if the medical profession continues to work diligently on behalf of the welfare of the public there is little likelihood of any vigorous demand for government interference in the field of health insurance. He said the demand for a more likely programme would be more likely to come from Corporations if more and more of them are forced by union negotiators to pay 100 percent of a medical care programme.

The Hospital Services Commission, according to Dr. Baldwin, places the responsibility with doctors for making the upcoming hospital care insurance programme work by controlling excessive hospital admissions and discharges, and the excessive or abusive use of drugs.

"We, the members of the O.M.A., can control these things through existing medical committees in our hospitals. It is unrealistic to ask the general population to shoulder this responsibility. Our actions will be in support of the profession's belief that every citizen should have the opportunity to meet hospital costs by insurance," Dr. Baldwin stated. Results of a study by the O.M.A., and their consequent recommendation to the Hospital Services Commission, paved the way for the hospital insurance plan to include payment of all drugs in common use which a patient may require in an approved hospital.

"Thus there will be no ceiling on the amount or kind of drugs used and it will be up to the medical staffs of the individual hospitals to evaluate excessive or abusive use of drugs by their staffs." "I believe the continuation of this unrestricted policy of paying for all drugs will depend on the common sense of doctors ordering such. Let us not have developed a restrictive drug list simply because a few are unscrupulous. Let us, the medical profession, continue to develop active and authoritative pharmacy committees in our hospitals," Dr. Baldwin urged the delegates.

Speaking on behalf of the Board of Directors of the O.M.A., Dr. Baldwin criticized the current distribution of health grants by the Federal Government. He said they now amounted to $10,000,000 a year and that the medical profession has not the opportunity to evaluate them. "They appear inequitable, and while the Federal Government contributes the money, it exerts a control on the province receiving same. The O.M.A. thinks it is time that health grants in Ontario are assessed by the medical profession."

Similar meetings of the medical profession are being held throughout the Province during October and November.

Sheep Raising Profitable Business

Even though the sheep population in Ontario has decreased considerably during the past half century, A. M. Barr, Principal of Kemptville Agricultural School says that there is still a place for sheep on Ontario farms.

As proof, Mr. Barr mentions that Canada has never had a surplus of sheep or the products of sheep in the form of lamb and wool. Eighty per cent of the wool used in Canada is imported, as is thirty per cent of the lamb eaten in this country. There is, then, a market for sheep in Canada.

Climatic conditions in Ontario — seasons, rainfall, temperature — are favorable for sheep and there is a good deal of rough, unutilized land where they would do well. Sheep, like any other animal, respond to good pasture and feed, but much of our hilly, rough land could be used to support sheep adequately.

Farmers who have developed and maintained large flocks have found it profitable. Good breeding, economical but good feeding, proper care and management, together with disease control, are necessary. Elaborate buildings for housing are not required. Barns, or open sheds which permit outdoor exercise during winter, are adequate. Additional protection is needed at lambing time, but its natural covering will soon protect the lamb from even very low temperatures.

Because sheep produce two crops a year — wool and lamb — the main sources of income from a flock are from sale of lambs, sale of breeding stock if purebreds, and the sale of wool. Sheep also keep down weeds and brush in rough pastures and utilize land unsuitable for tillage. The labor involved is reasonable and even then only light; investment required for buildings and equipment is low; and the market is relatively stable with fewer and less violent fluctuations than in the case of pork and beef.

When these factors are considered, farmers should find a good flock of sheep a profitable addition to their farm business.

AFTER HARVEST CULTIVATION ASSISTS RAGWEED CONTROL

The air-borne pollen of plants causes a great deal of suffering each summer to nearly 100,000 Hay Fever victims in Eastern Canada, with Common Ragweed, sometimes known as Short Ragweed, Hogweed, Bitterweed or Roman Wormwood, being one of the chief offenders, according to the Field Crops Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

Ragweed is an annual with a much branched and slightly hairy stem which grows from one to three feet high, with leaves that are very finely divided, giving the plant a ragged appearance. The flowers are yellowish, on long slender spikes at the ends of the branches; a single plant being able to produce as many as 5,000 seeds.

Although an annual, Ragweed is difficult to kill because it often produces seeds late in the year after cultivation, mowing and spraying have ceased. It also produces seeds low down on the plant where they may be missed by the mower and so care should be taken to mow low and often to prevent seed formation on second or third growth plants.

Ragweed may also be controlled by after-harvest cultivation. Stubble land should be given repeated cultivation at intervals until late fall. Hoed crops also help control it if preceded by thorough fall and spring cultivation.

Ragweed is quite susceptible to 2,4-D and may be controlled by 6 to 8 oz. of 2,4-D acid per acre. New plants spring up throughout the entire growing season, however, making several applications — at intervals — necessary to prevent all the plants from forming seed.

Fortunately for the many victims of Hay Fever, Ragweed is not prevalent in most parts of Northern Ontario. Where it is possible to do so, Hay Fever victims might be advised to arrange for holidays commencing about mid-August when most sections of Northern Ontario should afford them the relief they are seeking.

BLACK SCOURS IN LAMBS

The cool, wet fall months, from October through November are ideal for the development of intestinal worms in young ewes. Ewes may harbour the small intestinal worms all summer and pass the eggs on to the pasture. It is only during the cool wet weather of the autumn months, however, that these eggs hatch out and infest the ewes in overwhelming numbers. Usually only young ewes are affected, although occasionally older animals may become involved.

The first sign of the disease is severe scouring, frequently the scour is almost black in color. According to the Ontario Veterinary College, if the condition is allowed to progress the animals lose flesh, slowly weaken and eventually die. The worms live in the intestine and are extremely small, it is very difficult to see them with the naked eye. The worms cause a constant irritation to the bowel and interfere with the normal digestion of the animal.

This type of worm is fairly resistant to most types of medication, however, phenothiazine is the drug of choice. The drug should be given twice with an interval of about ten days between doses. It is advisable to change pastures following each treatment.

Many great trusts have been formed, but the greatest begins at a mother's knee.

No Substitute

For a couple of hours one day last week we gave up smoking. Denying oneself of the filthy weed has become the thing to do, so we joined the snapping throng and bought a package of gum.

Our first stick of gum was well chewed, when we unthinkingly removed our spectacles and popped the corner of the earpiece into our mouth to fill the aching void on our lips where a cigarette so often hung.

The telephone rang, we replaced our glasses, answered the phone and then frantically scraped at the gum in our hair.

After a quick trip to the barber shop, we were back again, taking our chances with lung cancer. —Napanee Post-Express.

This is a very lengthy list of courses which have been suggested to the Secretary and the other members of the Night School Committee, and are not personal suggestions of any member of the committee. It is understandable to realize that all of the above courses could not be offered. The minimum registration in each course must be 15, and before the course is to be offered, a suitable instructor for each course must be secured.

As stated above the Committee this year have introduced a ruling that no transferring from one course to another is to be permitted. This has been very confusing in past years and it is very difficult to keep an accurate check on attendance if students transfer from one course to another. For that reason this ruling is to be enforced this year.

Bethel United Church Observes 84th Anniversary

Bethel United Church on the Rawdon Circuit held its 84th Anniversary on Sunday, September 28th with a good attendance at both services.

The Church was decorated with baskets of variegated mums and the two pedestal standards were filled with autumn blooms and the basket of flowers on the Communion table was placed in memory of the late Roy Welbourne by Mrs. Welbourne and family.

Rev. D. Mansell Smith, B.A., B.D., of Campbellford, was the guest minister for both morning and evening, while the Pastor, Rev. W. G. Fletcher, B.A., had charge of the evening service.

At the morning service Rev. Smith based his theme on "How Small is Your Church," taking for his text Luke 12: 32, "Fear not, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom."

At the evening service Rev. Smith spoke on the subject, "The Shepherd Psalm."

Special Music arranged by Mrs. Harold Elliott, A.T.C.M., church organist.

ganist, was rendered by a full choir at both services. In the morning the choir rendered the anthem, "Stand Up, Stand Up For Jesus," by Gerbel-Wilson; also prayer response, "Hear Our Prayer, O Lord," by G. Whelpton. The guest soloist, Mr. Jack Bush, of Stirling, sang "Just For Today," by M. Seaver and "The Lord is My Shepherd," by S. Liddle.

At the evening service the choir sang the anthem, "Now Thank We God," by B. Carleton, with Mrs. Carleton Potts taking the alto solo part. The Hastings Male Quartette, under the direction of Mr. L. Humphries, sang two numbers very acceptably, "Steal Away," by Woodbury and "Rock of Ages," by Hastings.

The evening service closed with the congregation joining heartily in singing "Take Time to be Holy."

THE FOOD BASKET

HALLOWE'EN FUN TIME

Halloween is a favourite time for parties — for good, old-fashioned homemade merriment and good, old-fashioned food! From the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture here's a menu designed to add the final touch of colour and good flavour to your party.

If you're not planning to entertain on October 31st, why not serve this Halloween party meal to your family at suppertime? The children will enjoy helping you decorate the table in Halloween style with witch place cards, popcorn balls, black or brown candles in improvised small pumpkin candle holders and, if there's space for it, a jolly pumpkin jack o'lantern.

Halloween Party Menu

Home-baked Beans
Hot Sausage Rolls Mustard Pickles
Shredded vegetables in Orange Jelly
Rye Bread Cheese
Gingerbread with Whipped Cream and Peach Halves
Hot Spiced Apple Juice
Shredded Vegetables in Orange Jelly

Substitute 2 tablespoons vinegar for part of the water when dissolving orange jelly powder in usual way. Season with salt and pepper. Chill until it starts to thicken, then fold in about 2 cups of vegetables — shredded cabbage and carrot, chopped celery and a little green onion if desired. Chill until set. Serve with salad dressing.

Popcorn Balls

Using scissors, cut  $\frac{3}{4}$  pound (12 ounces) fresh marshmallows in small pieces and melt with  $\frac{1}{4}$  cup butter in top of double boiler over hot water. Stir well. Place 16 cups prepared popcorn on large sheet of waxed paper and pour melted marshmallow mixture over it. Mix well and mould into 8 medium-size or 16 small popcorn balls. (Dampen hands with water to make shaping job easier.)

Hot Spiced Apple Juice

To 1 can (20 ounces) apple juice add  $\frac{1}{2}$  teaspoon cider vinegar, 6 cloves, 1 stick cinnamon and 1 teaspoon of sugar. Bring to boil, then cool. Strain and store in refrigerator. Reheat before serving with a cinnamon "swizzle" stick in each glass. Four servings.

Chevrolet Suburban Carryall Offers Economical Transportation

Better gasoline mileage in the light-duty line, a wider range of optional equipment, and numerous engine and chassis improvements feature the 1959 Chevrolet truck line, details of which were announced recently by General Motors of Canada, Limited.

The number of models offered has been expanded to 139, three more than last year, on 22 different wheelbases. Gross vehicle weight ratings range from 4,000 to 36,000 pounds. Included are 96 conventional 22 low-cab-forward, eight forward control, six tandem-axle, and five school bus chassis models, in addition to a sedan delivery and a new luxury pickup to be announced later.

The massive functional styling introduced in 1958 is retained. New two-tone coloring is offered in the Fleet-side line, with chrome molding accenting side panel contours. Cab interiors are restyled with brighter trim.

In the light-duty series, major emphasis is on fuel economy, with an improved six-cylinder engine that has proved in commercial tests to give up to 10 per cent better mileage, and an increase in torque at low and medium speeds.

Brakes on half-ton models have been improved. Rear shoes and linings have been widened to provide 16 $\frac{1}{2}$  square inches of braking surface, to assure greater stopping power, cooler operation, and longer lining life.

Principal advancements in the medium-duty line are in engine improvements. Engines are more durable and they perform better. Pistons are stronger and intake valve faces are aluminized to reduce wear on both faces and seat.

A full-flow oil filter replaces the former partial flow unit. It features a safety by-pass valve that assures constant oil circulation. A new thermostatically-controlled by-pass cooling system assures rapid warmup, uniform temperature distribution, and constant coolant circulation at all times.

Highlighting features of the heavy-duty line is a new optional power train for 70 and 80 series trucks. It consists of a 185 h.p. 348 cu. in. engine, heavier clutch, close ratio five-speed or Powermatic transmission, and a 16,000 lb. single rear axle or 30,000 lb. tandem. This combination results in a 12 per cent increase in pulling power. As a result the GCW rating has been increased to 38,000 lbs.

V-belts are of high strength rayon and dacron cord construction which cuts stretch by 50 per cent, affording less slipping and longer wear.

Higher capacity generators are available for all models as optional equipment.

Marmora Legion Addition

Tenders have been called for an addition and alteration to the Canadian Legion Hall in Marmora. The bids were due October 6th. The architects, Watson and Wiegand, of Belleville, received the tenders.

Dairymen Must Be Alert To Keep Down Mastitis Losses

and cows. Mastitis has forced the removal of far too many good cows from the milking line before they reached maturity and maximum production.

Reduced to its simplest definition, mastitis is considered to be an inflammation of the udder from any cause. Usually the disease results in visible changes in the milk, although this is not always the case.

According to recent research work done at the Ontario Veterinary College the care and maintenance of the milking machine are very important in the control of the disease. The effects on the cow of a properly functioning milking machine more closely resemble that of the nursing calf than did the old fashioned method of hand milking. A milking machine that is not functioning properly is a very common cause of mastitis in cows.

Cheese in Any Form Good Protein Source

Many people are unsure of the meaning of the terms "Cheddar Cheese" and "processed cheese" when they see them advertised as such. Marvin E. Beach, Dairy Division, Kemptville Agricultural School, advises that unprocessed or natural Cheddar cheese is the large, cylindrical cheese commonly made at most Ontario cheese factories. This may be either colored or white and may be aged a few weeks or up to more than two years — being sold as mild, medium or well aged.

Possibly less than half the natural Cheddar cheese is consumed as such, however, much of it is being sold as processed, or as the packages describe it, "pasteurized, blended" cheese.

Processing consists of taking cheese of different ages and different degrees of flavor intensity, grinding and blending them together, adding some additional dairy ingredients such as milk or whey solids, as well as a small amount of an emulsifying salt, then heating to about 160 degrees F. It is then fed to automatic packaging machines which put it up in rectangular packages, glass jars, or packages of slices.

The purpose for which the cheese is to be used largely determines the type purchased — to go with apple pie or to make macaroni and cheese, for example, natural Cheddar cheese would be bought; for making hamburgers or some type of cheese sauce, processed cheese might be more convenient.

There are several forms of processed Cheddar cheese, but one may also purchase processed Swiss, processed brick, processed cream cheese, as well as other kinds both domestic and imported.

Whatever kind of cheese is bought, it is all good food and a tasty, economical source of milk proteins, minerals, and vitamin A. Eat it often!

Canadian women first voted in Ontario in 1884, but it was in municipal elections only and only widows and spinsters got the ballot.

104th Milestone Passed by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church

Rev. Joseph Muchan, B.A., Toronto, Guest Minister — Special Music by the Choir

Favoured with lovely fall weather, the 104th Anniversary observed by St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling, on Sunday, was crowned with success. Rev. Joseph Muchan, B.A., Superintendent of Evangelical Hall, Toronto, was the guest minister and large congregations, including many former members of St. Andrew's were present both morning and evening to hear his outstanding messages.

The Church was decorated for the occasion with baskets of 'mums.

Morning Service

At the morning service Rev. Muchan based his remarks on the 24th chapter of Luke and the theme, "Experiences on the Highway of Life." Cleopas and probably his wife were on their way from Jerusalem to Emmaus and were discussing the empty tomb and the early tidings of His resurrection. They were joined by another on the way and invited him to their home. Later they discovered that their companion was Jesus.

There were four important points, stated Rev. Muchan. (1) The Open Book — Beginning at Moses and all the Prophets, he expounded unto them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. (2) The open door — Christ was invited into their home. Christ never forces His way or will where He is not wanted. (3) The open eyes — Their eyes of understanding were opened, and (4) The open lips — Mr. and Mrs. Cleopas rush back to Jerusalem and tell that they had been with Jesus.

"There is only one life, it will soon be passed, and only what's done for Christ will last," concluded Rev. Muchan.

Evening Service

At the evening service Rev. Muchan gave a vivid description of his work and experiences at Evangelical Hall Mission in Toronto.

Anniversary Music

The anniversary music at the morning service consisted of an anthem, "Rejoice, Give Thanks," by the choir and a solo, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," by Mrs. Walter Warren.

In the evening service the choir rendered "Saviour Precious Saviour" and Misses Carol Ray and Linda Anne Morrow sang a duet, "Now The Day Is Over."

Mrs. Harry Morrow, organist and choir leader, presided at the console at both services.

Merrie Bowlers

In this week's meeting of the Merrie Bowlers Ann Rodgers rolled the high single, 234, and Pearl Fraser the high triple, 550. Other good scores were Marie Eggleston 213, Barbara Noble 227 and Verna Tucker 201.

Another man's error may be your accident. Always drive to allow for a possible error by the other man, advises the Ontario Safety League.

High School Sport Activities

(Ed. Mayhew)

Volley Ball

The Stirling High School girls' volleyball team netted two victories over the visiting Tweed girls last Thursday.

The outstanding point scorer for the senior team was Joanne Reid, who accounted for 12 of the locals 36 points. Tweed's total was 30.

The juniors, who have consistently racked up high winning scores, were led to a victory by Sandra West and Anne Reid, whose combined efforts were responsible for better than half of the 55 point total. The Tweed team had 32 counters.

Football

Due to the heavy rainfall last Friday Stirling was unable to meet Marmora. However, this Friday Stirling will face Tweed at the local Fair Grounds. The opening kick-off is at 4.00 p.m. and any support from local football enthusiasts would be welcomed.

St. Andrew's Club Pot Luck Dinner

At the conclusion of her talk, which was recorded by CJBQ, Belleville, for broadcast at a later date, she showed a number of interesting books and photostat copies of early documents pertaining to this area.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

Some 40,000 visitors, mainly from Europe, visited the Drupa Exhibition at Dusseldorf in May of this year. The Exhibition, displaying printing and paper, is held every four years.

This year the Vice-Chancellor, and Minister of the German Republic, Professor Dr. Erhard, opened the exhibition, and in doing so, quoted the text: "Man does not live by bread alone." This text was given in ancient Greek, English, French, Dutch and German, on large cloth sheets, which formed the background of a display of Bibles arranged by the Bible Society.

In reporting on this display the West German radio described it as one of the most interesting and valuable in the whole Drupa Exhibition. It is a fact that this stand attracted the interest at all hours of the day, of adults, and in a special way, of young people.

The theme of the display was: "Contemporary Bible printing 1945-1958" the Bibles, Testaments and Portions exhibited were the production of the Bible Societies which belong to the United Bible Societies.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

THOSE WONDERFUL COPS!

In a couple of weeks I hope to get to Montreal and one of the things I look forward to is being directed, in traffic, by those wonderful Montreal cops. While Winnipeg is my home, and I have all due respect for our minions of the law, traffic cops here look and act like glum and gloomy incompetents compared to the traffic gendarmes in Montreal.

When I lived in Montreal there was a traffic cop on Cotes des Neiges Road who was better to watch than a symphony orchestra conductor. The Freshie Parade which tied up Winnipeg traffic could have flowed past him without a hitch. Not that he ignored a bad driver or a clumsy one; he did not — he assisted them in such a manner that they were better drivers after they passed his corner.

I've tried, ever since moving to Winnipeg, to figure out why the French traffic cop puts our lads to shame. I believe it is all a question of mental attitude.

In Montreal, when a cop must give you a ticket, you feel that both he and you have been caught in the net — that he suffers with you, particularly if it is some minor infraction. He almost weeps with you as he makes out the ticket, muttering imprecations about the stupidity of the laws which have put the two of you in such an embarrassing situation.

In Winnipeg, you get the feeling that the policeman is hoping that tomorrow he'll get you again, or that some new intricacy in the law will help him trap you. There is no camaraderie between motorist and police, no gaiety, no togetherness. The visitor to Winnipeg enters the outskirts to find that both the law and the cops are arrayed against him. The visitor to Montreal soon feels that he has a tough driving job ahead, but that somehow those smiling gesticulating cops will shepherd him through it unharmed and happy.

I think I'll start a campaign here in Winnipeg. After all, we exchange students between East and West; we exchange college professors; we exchange insults: Why not, for a short period of say a couple of centuries, trade cops?

Protein For Hens

Protein requirements of laying hens may be far less than recommended at present, according to Nutritionist T. M. MacIntyre, of the Experimental Farms.

Protein levels ranging from 12 to 20 per cent were fed to laying hens. There was no evidence to support the view that high energy rations require higher levels of protein than now employed.

Indeed, 15 per cent protein has been found to be more than sufficient and evidence strongly suggests that levels as low as 12 per cent may be adequate.

While further study is needed, indications are that future laying rations will contain less protein — spelling substantial savings to poultrymen.

In recent years, use of high energy grains and addition of fats to laying rations resulted in much higher energy levels, and the tendency was to associate high protein levels with high energy levels.

This, says Mr. MacIntyre, led to renewed interest in the protein requirements of the laying hen.

Good Driving Does Not End When Ignition Is Cut

Walt Disney didn't invent fantasy. Fairies and lovable animals spoke in the minds of children before Hans Anderson was born. But it was the motion picture cartoonists who did most, in the shortest time, to make the child's world of fantasy more real. To put the Three Little Pigs on the living room screen, and Bugs Bunny on the breakfast cereal box.

Cartoon creations can also sell things more valuable than breakfast foods, toys, games, sweaters — more valuable even than healthy laughter. For example, there is a cartoon elephant with an infectious smile selling a lot of traffic safety. ELMER THE SAFETY ELEPHANT WHO NEVER FORGETS, created by the Toronto Telegram in co-operation with the Metropolitan Toronto Traffic Safety Council, is now helping protect hundreds of thousands of youngsters in Ontario. Now that the Ontario Safety League has undertaken active promotion of the programme in all schools outside Toronto, (including other countries) the thousands of schools already participating may be expected to multiply.

Drivers, even non-parents, should not dismiss Elmer with an indulgent smile. Through his constant reminder of the six most important safety rules for children he may have prevented a tragedy — a scream of brakes and a crumpled little figure under the wheels — that could have struck anyone who drives.

Good driving does not end when the ignition key is removed. Good driving includes encouragement of everything good that is done to make the highways safer. It includes support of proper laws, and police enforcement of those laws. It includes respect for an elephant with a wide grin and a bow tie, on a pennant fluttering from a school flag pole — a creation of fantasy that may be as real as a policeman's arm in protecting a care-free child.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

SAVING LABOR IMPORTANT ON THE DAIRY FARM

The saving of labor is important, and especially so on a dairy farm where, because the industry is highly competitive, labor costs can mean the difference between success and failure.

In this day of small marginal profits, the farmer must strive to economize in his efforts, rather than follow the laborious routines practised by his father and grandfather. Prof. Frank Theakston, Department of Agricultural Engineering, the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, advises that many simple devices are available, or can be constructed, which will greatly reduce the labor necessary on a dairy farm.

The movement of materials and equipment, especially in the feeding operation, constitutes a good share of the labor. Since feed is usually heavy or awkward to move, simple methods should be devised for this job. Self-feeding devices are of great assistance and many farmers have created their own self-feeders.

Hay may be self-fed from hay racks in the yard or in the stable; straw should be stored overhead for both loose housing and stall barns so that it can be dropped through chutes for bedding; the silage cart should be chosen for its ability to go around corners and through passageways easily. Horizontal silos are becoming more common and they are a means of saving labor.

There are many types of equipment designed to speed up work, but of course, the farming operation must be large enough to warrant their use. Agricultural Engineering Specialists are available to assist in planning labor saving equipment, and plans for many self-feeding devices are available from the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

FALL PASTURE MANAGEMENT IMPROVES NEXT YEAR'S CROP

Careful fall management of pastures and hay fields is vital to good production the following year, reports Dr. W. E. Tossell, Field Husbandry Department, Ontario Agricultural College, who adds that at this time of year a good pasture can be destroyed or weakened through improper grazing, or a weak pasture can be strengthened by proper management.

Pasture and hay are the backbone of the feeding programme for beef and dairy cattle and are money-making crops. Since some fields must be grazed in September to provide this feed, the logical ones are those fields which will be plowed later in the fall. Graze these right to the ground in September and allow the younger alfalfa meadows to rest. Later in the fall, graze the second year meadows, and later still the first year alfalfa meadows and young pasture crops. On the younger alfalfa meadows 4 to 6 inches of top should be left and on good ladino grass pastures about 4 inches should be left.

Late in the fall when growth has stopped new seedlings can be pastured but 6 inches of the top growth should be left to help carry them throughout the winter.

Fertility is another aspect of good management. Good pasture and hay crops use large amounts of fertility nutrients and it pays to fertilize these crops generously. Early fall is a good time to fertilize pastures and hay fields containing a good proportion of legumes. Another thing which should be done each fall is to harrow pastures to spread the droppings to make better use of their fertility by spreading it over more plants; also the grass growth will be less patchy in the spring and cattle will graze the pasture more evenly.

PLANS AVAILABLE FOR FARM BUILDINGS

Modern farm buildings are just as essential to the efficient operation of a farm business as an up-to-date factory is to the operation of an industry. Prof. F. H. Theakston, Engineering Science Department, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph, reports that more and more farmers are constructing buildings with convenience and efficiency of operation in mind.

Researchers are constantly trying to improve farm structures by using more economical designs in framing and floor plans, and new building materials have been a great help in constructing new, and remodelling old buildings. Sanitation is stressed in the new designs, with ventilation and insulation given a good deal of study. There is now in operation the Canadian Farm Building Plan Service, in which all Provinces participate, and it is organized so that farmers throughout Canada can obtain plans which have proved to be satisfactory in other parts of the country. The plans are distributed from a centre in each Province — in Ontario, from the O.A.C. — and are free to prospective builders in Ontario upon request.

A series of catalogues has been prepared containing plans of buildings and equipment for dairy, beef, fruit and vegetable, sheep, poultry, swine, special structures, and grain storages. Catalogues have been placed in offices of Agricultural Representatives, and in offices of many lumber dealers and seed companies. A set of working drawings may be ordered by referring to the catalogue number under the plan. Catalogues and plans are done in both English and French.

NEW CATTLE VACCINE BEING DEVELOPED

According to the Ontario Veterinary College, research personnel at the Veterinary Virus Research Institute in New York State have recently issued a preliminary report on a new cattle vaccine. The vaccine has been developed to immunize cattle against leptospirosis, virus diarrhea and infectious bovine rhinotracheitis. The latter disease is not common in Ontario but leptospirosis and virus diarrhea are assuming an increasing importance in the list of diseases affecting Ontario cattle.

The fact that a triple vaccine has been developed and given in one inoculation resulting in both successful immunization and safety is an important step forward in the control of animal diseases. Triple vaccines have been used in human medicine for some time, but this is the first report of their use in the immunization of cattle.

THE FOOD BASKET FEATURE CHEDDAR CHEESE DURING OCTOBER

What's in the cool wind of October? It is news of the October cheese festival in Canada. Presiding at the festival will be King Cheddar, ruler of Canada's very important dairy industry.

Cheddar Cheese is a basic variety of cheese made from cow's milk and ripened by bacteria. In the shops it appears in either a deep rich cream or yellow colour, the only difference between the two being some added vegetable colouring to give the natural cheese a yellow colour.

Cheddar is marketed and sold according to age. "Mild Cheddar" has been ripened only a few weeks. "Medium" is aged for several months, while "Old Nippy Cheddar" has been ripened for a year or more. A distinct flavour develops, strong in proportion to the degree of ripening, and the cheese gradually mellows.

Cheddar cheese is excellent for serving in pieces at meal time and for adding flavour to bland foods in cooking. One pound of cheddar will give approximately four cups of grated cheese.

Process Cheddar is popular too. In its manufacture, Cheddar cheese is mixed into a homogeneous mass, pasteurized and poured into moulds or packages. Food colour, seasonings, relishes, certain preservatives and water solids derived from milk may be added to process cheese. Process Cheddar slices easily and blends very well with other foods when a little heat is applied. It is excellent for cooking as well as use on a snack tray or in sandwiches and salads.

There are three golden cheese rules to bring delight in the rich, mellow flavour of Cheddar to your table:

1. Buy the right amount for your purpose, making sure to choose the type that pleases your family's taste.
2. Store Cheddar properly.
3. Cook with care.

Storing Tips

Wrap cheese in heavy waxed paper or foil or pop it into a covered container and store it in the refrigerator or other cool place. In storing a large piece of cheese, protect the cut side with a coating of paraffin or a piece of waxed paper pressed on with a hot iron.

Remove cheese from the refrigerator long enough before using to allow it to reach room temperature. Every bit of the full flavour in cheese is brought out at room temperature.

Save the firm scraps after cutting cheese, grate them, and store in a covered jar.

Cooking Tips

To mix cheese evenly with other ingredients, the cheese is usually melted, grated or ground. To cook cheese, "easy" is the word to remember. Treat it gently when heating — don't shock it into a rubbery tough mass by subjecting it to high temperatures. "Oven-poaching" and baking in a moderate oven for only the length of time necessary to thoroughly heat the mixture, are cooking methods recommended for cheese dishes.

For many fine recipes for cheese dishes why not order the free booklet "Cheese Dishes"? To obtain your copy write to: Information Service,

Deloro Strikers To Hold Talks With Conciliator

Officials of the strikebound Deloro Smelting and Refining Company plant and Local 5375, United Steelworkers of America (ULSA) will meet chief conciliator for Ontario, Louis Fine, on October 17th, a union spokesman said. The strike of 200 production workers began Friday in support of demands for wage increases and other benefits. A meeting Saturday of union and company representatives decided that only salaried employees would be allowed to pass through union picket lines during the strike.

A Traveller's Note Book

Let's go North. I hear the colouring is perfect. I can believe it for never have I seen anything to equal the beauty of the North. However, there is a beauty which can be seen only in the early part of the year, it is the sunrise over the snow or the sunset, and the snow needs to be fairly heavy, and like diamonds. Not too far North snow has fallen, a little later we may hope to have some here.

Another British Blunder
Or so one reporter would have us believe. Well, none is more diligent in the search for a goat than we, so let's at it. The Panhandle is a constant strip of Alaska from 10 to 100 miles wide extending some 550 miles southward from the main Alaska-Canadian border cutting off the Yukon and Northern. A Canadian historian has described the panhandle as of doubtful political parentage. Most Canadians take the view that the Dominion was deprived of the territory under duress in 1903 — when President Theo Roosevelt threatened to use force to seize it. Others believe a rigged division between Britain and Washington resulted in Theo's threat to send United States troops into action against Canada. It's your choice. Russia at the time owned Alaska and Britain governed Canada. However, in that same year the Canadian status was changed — hence the question, was it London or Ottawa?

Sputnik III. was visible at 5.30 a.m. this morning. Also we might add, in more civilized times people fired rockets to celebrate a victory. Now we give a party to celebrate the firing of a rocket.

Muriel Devolin Weds Paul Kawzenuk

Tall coloured gladioli interspersed with ferns, formed a lovely setting on Saturday, September 27th at 2.00 p.m. in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling, for the marriage of Muriel Jean Devolin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Devolin, Stirling, to Mr. Paul Kawzenuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kawzenuk, of Oshawa. Rev. W. H. V. Walker officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

Mrs. Harry Morrow presided at the console of the organ and accompanied the soloist, Miss Marilyn Eggleton, of Toronto, who sang the "Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony and "The Wedding Prayer" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in her gown of white peau de sole with chapel train. Pearls and French lace trimmed the round neckline. Her shoulder-length veil of Swiss net fell from a crown of mother of pearl sequins and she carried a cascade of red roses.

Large Congregations At St. Paul's United Church Anniversary

Rev. C. B. Coleman, B.A.,
of Belleville, Preacher —
Special Music By Choirs

With ideal weather prevailing the Anniversary Services at St. Paul's United Church on Sunday proved most successful. The Church was decorated with baskets of "mums and large congregations were present for morning and evening services.

Rev. A. Packman, minister, conducted the services and Rev. C. W. Coleman, B.A., minister of Holloway St. United Church, Belleville, was the guest preacher.

Morning Service

Rev. Coleman based his morning sermon on the text "Where there is no vision, the people perish" and emphasized the necessity of vision in all avenues of success. He related incidents which occurred in his beloved Scotland, one of which pictured him standing at the summit of one of the mountains of the Inner Hebrides and looking toward the Outer Hebrides. With the naked eye, the view was not worth the effort of climbing the hill, but with the aid of field glasses the beauty was magnificent. So it is with our every day living. Our Christian experiences fit us for a better outlook and because we have access to study the characteristics of a model life, we are able to face the future with a worthy perspective. Blind eyes produce only spiritual cemeteries.

Evening Service

In the evening the congregation were treated to a sermon which was truly applicable to every listener. "Growing Toward Maturity" was presented in such a way as to illustrate the many phases of development. However merely increasing in size is not enough. The fullness of the Christian life can only be attained when we as individuals "come unto the measure of the stature of Christ." David Livingstone's life seemed a fitting example of the speaker's subject.

Anniversary Music

At the morning service the choir rendered an anthem, "Soldiers of Christ," by Wesley, and the Junior Choir sang a three-part arrangement of "Pleasant Are Thy Courts Above," accompanied by Mrs. Harold West at the piano. In the evening the choir sang "Ere Another Sabbath Close," by Bowles, and the male quartette, Messrs J. Bush, H. Brown, Bryce Philip and Grant Richardson, sang "Only a Touch of Thy Hand, Dear Lord."

Mrs. Grace Calvert presided at the console of the organ for both services.

Attend Baptismal Service At Marmora

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Parks and Gloria, of Cooper, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Watson, Wellman's, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Watson and Lynn, of Marmora. They attended the baptismal service at St. Andrew's United Church, Marmora, with Rev. John Glover officiating. Four babies were baptized including James Lynn Watson.

I.O.D.E. Plans Smorgasbord

Members of the I.O.D.E. Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter, have laid plans for a gala event to be held in the Community Hall, Tuesday, November 18th, 1958. A Smorgasbord Dinner will be served from 6.00 p.m. to 7.30 p.m., followed by bridge and euchre for any who wish to remain.

Included in the delightful menu are hot roast beef, hot chicken pie, cold roast turkey and cold ham. Admission is $1.75 for adults and $1.00 for children.

The bridge and euchre will not be progressive and prizes will be in the form of travelling, rather than for high scores. These will be awarded at 10.30 p.m.

The committee anticipate an early sale of tickets which will be limited to 250, and will be on sale Friday, October 31st. So plan to attend and purchase your tickets early from any member of the Chapter, or at the local Hydro Office. (Adv't.)

Fraternal Visit

Several members of Stirling Lodge, No. 69, A.F. & A.M., paid a fraternal visit to Frank Lodge, No. 127, Frankford, on Monday night. Rt. Wor. Bro. F. G. Creegan, District Deputy Grand Master of Prince Edward District, paid his official visit. Following the meeting a delicious banquet was served.

Among those from the local lodge in attendance were Messrs. C. Fitchett, Robt. Cooke, G. Irvine, L. Finkle, E. Emerson, Maurice Clancy and D. O. Duffin.

Morrow Sisters In Finals

Misses Helen, Lois, Ruthe and Margaret Morrow will appear on WBN channel 4, Buffalo, N.Y., for the third time on Sunday next, October 26th at 10.30 a.m. The local girls won in the preliminary competition and will be appearing in the finals on Sunday.

The Thanksgiving meeting of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Missionary Society was held at the home of Mrs. Duncan Montgomery with a good attendance. The committee in charge was Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh, Mrs. Don McIntosh, Mrs. Charles Devolin and Mrs. Jas. Menzies.

Mrs. E. Foster welcomed all present and read a "Call to Prayer." The devotional part of the meeting was taken from the Glad Tidings. The members repeated in unison the Thanksgiving Creed. After singing a hymn, Psalm 65 was read responsively. Mrs. E. Foster offered a Thanksgiving Prayer, followed by the Lord's Prayer in lengthened form by Mrs. Roy Eggleton. Roll call was responded to by the members reading a verse of Scripture on thanksgiving.

After dealing with the business portion of the meeting Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh took charge and gave an interesting poem on "October's Wealth." Hymns of thankful praise were sung. Mrs. Ken Ray gave a reading on "Simple Things."

The interesting topic was prepared and given by Mrs. W. H. V. Walker. This talk was on the "Message of Thanksgiving." Mrs. Walker stated Thanksgiving was an anniversary, a time when we should re-dedicate our lives to missionary work. This was followed by a reading given by Mrs. Don McIntosh, "Thanksgiving Prayers."

Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh closed the meeting with an old Greek Prayer written over 2000 years ago.

The committee in charge served refreshments. The thanks of the members to all who had helped with the meeting was voiced by Mrs. W. L. Munro.

Two Local Men Arrested For Theft Cigarettes From Stirling Wholesale

Police Chief W. Sutherland
Apprehended the Culprits
Early Wednesday Morning

Thieves broke into the premises of the Stirling Wholesale on Mill St., in the early hours of Friday morning and stole approximately two hundred dollars worth of cigarettes.

According to police entrance was gained by smashing the glass in a small window on the west side of the building and squeezing between two bars fastened to the frame. Apparently the thieves threw a quantity of cigarettes out the window, as some were found lying on the ground beneath it, but finding this method too slow, they opened the front doors, which set off a burglar alarm. However it was not until some time later that a neighbour heard the alarm and notified Chief W. Sutherland, who investigated.

Arrests Made

Police Chief Sutherland had been following various leads on the case and early Wednesday morning arrested two local men and charged them with the crime. It is understood that practically all the cigarettes have been recovered and the thieves will appear in Marmora Court on Monday.

Miss I. MacKenzie Guest Speaker At W.M.S. Rally

A successful Autumn Rally of the West Section of the Woman's Missionary Society of Belleville Presbyterian, was held at Centenary United Church on Friday, October 17th.

Mrs. George Carlisle, of Stirling, Presbyterian Vice-President, for the Section, presided for the day's sessions, at which morning registration showed 56 in attendance, and 97 for the afternoon, representing in all 12 Auxiliaries.

Worship
Following the opening prayer and words of welcome by Mrs. Carlisle, morning devotions were conducted by members of Aikens Auxiliary. The Bible Lessons, from Luke 10: 25-37 and Matthew 25: 31-46, were read by Mrs. Everett Hubble. Following this, Mrs. Ken Jones commented on the Lesson and offered prayer. Mrs. Harleigh Hamilton acted as pianist.

This story of the Good Samaritan drew attention to man's relationship to one another. Men and nations will be judged someday, according to their response to human need. "Inasmuch," said Christ, "as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me."

Mid Day Worship

This was in charge of Trenton King Street Auxiliary. The Lesson from John 17, read by Mrs. E. E. Smithrim, gave an intimate revelation of God's Divine purpose. Mrs. H. Langdon gave the devotional talk, stressing that Jesus had prayed that the whole world might be one, and that all might believe that He had been sent by the Father. The Great Commission — "Go ye, and make disciples of all nations," included all men in the world community. Mrs. S. Hugh's solo, "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer," added much to the worship.

Business

Mrs. David Luery, of Stirling, acted as Secretary, and read the minutes of the last Rally, in which mention was made of the invitation to hold the 1959 Rally at Mount Pleasant United Church. Those present were warmly welcomed by Mrs. B. Harder, President of Centenary Auxiliary and by the Minister, the Rev. R. Rickard.

Christian Stewardship And Finances

Mrs. H. M. Davis, of Belleville, the Secretary for Christian Stewardship, was introduced by Mrs. R. G. Coulter, the Treasurer, also from Belleville. Together, they explained, in question and answer method, how Missionary work of the Society is maintained and the many phases of Christian Stewardship, a short definition of which is "Christianity in Action."

Explanation was made of the use of In Memoriam cards and life memberships for Auxiliary, Mission Band and Baby Band members. Requests are donations bequeathed the W.M.S. by will of members deceased.

There are 11 Conference Branches across Canada and 102 Presbyteries, of which one is our own Belleville Presbyterian, with a membership of 2155. The total yearly objective is $1,360,000 for work at Home and Overseas Missions. The Belleville Presbyterian accepted for this year an allocation of $27,514. All moneys over and above the allocation met, go for replacements urgently needed or new projects (G.B.A. gifts for Building Advance).

This year two projects are in mind:

1. For Canada — An operating room and equipment for the John Neil Hospital, Cold Lake, Alberta.

2. For Overseas — Money for a library at Ewha University, Korea.

The work of the W.M.S. is extensive, with heavy commitments thus, money raised for the work should not be diverted to other channels.

Literature

Mrs. Percy MacMullen, of Stirling, Literature Secretary, gave as usual an excellent resume of the new study books for the year for use of all age groups of the Missionary family.

"Concerns of a Continent," by Jas. Hoffman, is the new book for Auxiliaries, dealing with Christian concern for our North American neighbours from Alaska to the Caribbean. It shows how countries may learn and find new interest in one another. Other books of the study packet, as well as those of the Book Shelf, were displayed.

"Journeying With The Years," by Mrs. V. Pratt, is still a best seller, as is also "My Faith Is Enough," by Alan Walker. A new book for Baby Band leaders will soon be off the press.

Attractive folders made by Allen School pupils were on display, depicting life in Japan.

Book sales at the Rallies are encouraging. "Give your Literature Secretary a chance to tell you of all our splendid reading material," urged Mrs. MacMullen.

Miss Ida MacKenzie Afternoon Speaker

Introduced by Mrs. S. W. Spafford, of Belleville, Miss Ida MacKenzie, of Toronto, W.M.S. Community Worker at Regent Park United Church, presented a vivid and most interesting picture of the development in that area and the life and work of the Church there.

The area of Regent Park covers an area of three major city blocks, an area extending from Parliament St. to River St. and from Dundas to Gerrard.

This had definitely been a sub-standard housing area, with 90 per cent of the buildings, tenant occupied, and most of them unfit for living — cold in winter, sweltering in summer, no conveniences, infested with cockroaches, in dirt and squalor, rickety buildings, heated by stoves — a constant fire hazard.

Sometimes we are apt to criticize those whom we judge as slovenly housekeepers, living in such homes, but if we were in their place, would we be any different from them?

"On the wings of imagination, may I ride,

Into the lives of others, and live at their side.

Forgetting myself and the life I live,

Entering another's life to live as he lives

If I were he, and this happened to me,

From him, no different, would I be." — Lois Leiski in

"The Outlook."

Ever since 1946 there had been a hue and cry over the need for something to be done for decent housing in this area. Toronto was having a terrible time to house its people, but at long last, with Federal, Provincial and Municipal co-operation, things took shape. The Regent Housing Authority was given control of construction and management of this housing problem. 822 families had to be moved somewhere, old houses torn down, new property bought, and new houses built. By 1952 there were 1289 housing units where 5000 families were housed in fine three-storey apartments. Recently an additional eight storey building with apartments for the older folk.

This Regent Park Project is unique in that the rental is geared according to a family's income. A new baby arrives, and the rent is reduced for a time. A husband is out of work, and again some adjustment is made in his rent.

People have benefitted greatly in that cleanliness and the attractiveness of their homes has effected their entire morale. There are of course still problems of human nature where the influence of the church is needed and it tries to help and establish a fellowship with these people.

Patterns of living had been poor. There were problems of conflict between husband and wife; there were teen-age discipline problems and problems with even the little ones.

In 1953 the Home Mission Board united three congregations to form Oak United Church, and a year after the bulldozers had started work in December of 1954, the new Church held the opening service and dedication. This new Church serving the Regent Park community, seats 300 and has ample space for weekly groups and aims to give these people, our neighbours of Regent Park, something for life that they cannot get any where else.

Miss MacKenzie closed her address with an earnest plea for more young women to enter the work of Home Missions.

Team Work

Each year certain phases of the work are given special emphasis at the Rallies. Departments stressed this year were Christian Citizenship, Community Friendship, Supply and Mission Band. Respectively, the Secretaries for these were — Mrs. Neelands, of Picton; Mrs. Fred Bell, of Moscow; Mrs. C. W. Neelands, of Deseronto; Mrs. Maurice Clancy, of Holloway. Mrs. Clarence Holmes, Presbyterian President, introduced each of these Secretaries and interviewed them concerning aspects of their special work.

The aim and importance of Mission Band was explained, with regret that we lack leaders. The Auxiliary members were asked to take personal interest in the Mission Bands.

Besides the regular supply allocations, many other practical ways were mentioned of showing concern for others.

Being a Christian citizen is a way of life. Though various governing bodies look after Social Welfare, we also may show our concern. We find them

This is a very lengthy list of courses which have been suggested to the Secretary and the other members of the Night School Committee. It is understandable that some of the suggestions of the committee are not to be offered. The minimum registration in each course must be 15, and before the course is to be offered, a suitable instructor for

As stated above the Committee this year have introduced a ruling that no transferring from one course to another is to be permitted. This has been very confusing in past years and it is very difficult to keep an accurate check on attendance if students transfer from one course to another. For that reason this ruling is to be enforced this year.

Annual Fall Meeting Women's Auxiliary Deanery

The Annual Fall meeting of the Women's Auxiliary Deanery was held on October 21st in St. Mark's Church, Bonarlaw. The ladies congregated from all of the Churches in the Deanery and it was gratifying to see a representation from so many Chapters. The Parish of Stirling, Frankford and Glen Miller had 27 ladies in attendance in the morning which is to be commended as the total congregation averaged about 70.

The Rev. K. F. Blachford, Rural Dean, celebrated the Holy Communion assisted by the Rev. Richard Fleming, of Marmora Parish. The sermon was preached by the Rev. J. M. G. Soutter, Rector of Holy Trinity Church, Maynooth, he being the newest Clergyman to join the Deanery.

Mr. Soutter's Sermon was a powerful challenge to the ladies to review their lives to see if perhaps they had entered Christianity through the efforts of their parents rather than making a decision for Christ for themselves. He cited the many laxities of the day that seem to be so much a part of our worship and the dire need for a complete housecleaning in the Christian's life to see if perhaps much of the worldly idols might not be discarded and replaced by the principles of Christianity of which Love is the foremost.

After the Service of Holy Communion, at which Mrs. R. G. Fleming presided at the organ, the ladies were guests of the ladies of St. Mark's Church in the basement for luncheon. The luncheon was excellent and very well served. These ladies should be heartily congratulated for the fine meal served under such crowded conditions and all of the women present voiced their acclaim in "thank yous." The ladies were personally thanked by the Rev. R. G. Fleming and then after a brief intermission the afternoon session got underway.

Afternoon Session

Mrs. K. C. Evans, the Bishop's wife, was to appear to introduce certain changes to the Constitution but failed to make an appearance. The afternoon session was held in the Church and opened with prayer by the Rev. Russell Gale, of Stirling, Frankford, Glen Miller Parish. The Clergy then left for a meeting of the Deanery and returned for tea and closing prayers.

At the afternoon session Mrs. R. G. Fleming welcomed all of the ladies and Mrs. Uttley, of St. George's Trenton, replied. Minutes of the last Deanery Meeting were read by Deanery President Mrs. Wellman. Various reports were given, one by Mrs. Watson on the Dominion Annual Meeting; one by Mrs. Mitchell on the 73rd Annual Meeting held in Christ Church, Deer Park, Toronto; Miss Winifred Burns on Deanery Meetings. These were followed by the various local Women's Auxiliary Branches reports.

Mrs. A. O'Krafska, of Trenton, was elected next Deanery President for 1959. The next Deanery is to be held at St. John's, Bancroft.

The Rev. R. G. Fleming closed the meeting with prayer.

The future and the past have a lot in common with the present.

Stirling Council Parks Dept.

Someone told me the other day that it was lucky for the Parks Department that this should be Centennial Year for Stirling. I quite understand and accept the point, and yet it leaves me wondering. Should it take a centennial to move us? Another point arises, why lucky for the Parks Department? However, we will not press the point, but having got a good start, we should pursue it.

Our own attitude would be summed up in a suggestion: "Let's make Stirling the most Attractive Village in the Province."

And why not, it has many natural features, which if supported would put it on the map as The Most Beautiful Village In The Province. This is what we should aim at. This however, cannot be achieved merely by patching up here and there, or even by planting flower beds. Even flower beds can make you feel sick at the sight of them unless they are in the right place and have the correct support in their surroundings. Otherwise, a few ordinary weeds are preferable.

A long range planning is needed, it cannot all be done in one year, but each year a lot can be done if those who are doing it know how to go about it.

There are very good reasons why we should all try to make this the loveliest village in the Province. First of all, we live here, so that such should be part of our own cultural background. We also hope that others may come to live here, they will be more likely to come if they see that we think enough of our village to make its everyday face attractive. Lastly, and for the moment, our own residents are far more likely to undertake improvements of their premises if they find that the public body responsible for public places are determined to cultivate such places or make them beautiful.

Make Stirling the Most Beautiful Village in the Province.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

A Scotsman expressed himself briefly and with conviction, when he said: "Next to the British Crown — the greatest!" This Scotsman was standing in front of the Bible Society display at the Canadian National Exhibition in Toronto, intently studying every detail of the display. One of the attendants at the display handed the interested observer a piece of literature, and asked: "Are you acquainted with the work of the Bible Society, Sir?" "I am," replied the Scotsman, "it is the greatest institution in the British Empire — next to the British Crown — the greatest!"

He elaborated upon his great beginnings in 1804; its great achievements in translating, printing and distribution of the Scriptures; its great service to all the mission fields; its great place in our world of today, and its great future.

Next to the British Crown — the greatest!

CONSERVATION
NEWS*Forest Protection

While we have been fortunate so far this season there should be no relaxing of care in the handling of fires for the next two weeks or so, since the leaves are falling fast and continued sun for the next few days will raise the fire danger. We still haven't forgotten the fall five years ago when more than 60 per cent of the area burned over the year went up in smoke during the last week in October and the first week in November. With even a week of dry weather in October this District can find a very hazardous situation developing so it is to be hoped that partridge and duck hunters in particular will be most careful with their cigarette butts and matches.

Fish And Wildlife

You may call this a fish story, but to John O'Neill, of R.R. 2, Kingston, it's nothing of the kind.

According to Mr. O'Neill he was doing some work around the dock where he maintains a boat livery, when he decided to try fishing for the first time this season. Securing an exceptionally large minnow he baited the hook and settled down for a few minutes of relaxation. From the dock he cast the big minnow out in the channel only a few feet away, the bait had scarcely hit the water when something took the attractive minnow and almost the pole as well. Mr. O'Neill was able to battle the catch to a point near the dock where it became somewhat entangled in floating weeds. The fish stopped its battle for a few seconds, at which time Mr. O'Neill observed something strange, the heads of two large northern pike, both holding on the big minnow. He was able to reel in a little more line while the battle for the minnow continued between the big fish and then it ended. The big pike that won the battle of the bait lost to the angler, as Mr. O'Neill landed his fish weighing seven pounds. Mrs. O'Neill was able to verify the catch having weighed the fish and prepared it for the following day's dinner.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

GOVERNMENTS — GO HOME!

If governments persist in doing everything else under the sun but govern, I'm afraid I'm going to become an anarchist!

Those of you patient enough to read me for years will recall that long before the scandal hit the headlines, I warned you that the government adventure into a huge printing bureau across the river from Ottawa was a shameful and costly blunder. Now the Ottawa Journal reveals that when the building was going up, reporters and photographers from the paper were "turned away — alike by doormen and executives in authority."

You'll also recall that I warned you about the government entry into the gas pipeline business. I said it would make personal fortunes for a group of promoters, but the taxpayers would carry the risk. The government went right ahead with deals and secret negotiations and nobody seemed to care much — until it was too late.

Now we have a new government. It will become subject to all the temptations the old government eventually yielded to. It, also, will yield, unless the voters are watchful.

The toughest problem for a government is to truly govern, to make decisions on thorny problems. But that's why we put them there, and that's what we pay them to do.

The easiest thing for a government to do is spend our money. Anybody can build a pipeline — and charge it up to the people! Anyone can build a massive printing bureau — if the money comes from the public cash box.

Today's government is already being pressured into similar enterprises. A group of promoters want a crude oil pipeline built from Edmonton to Montreal — even though everybody knows it would be uneconomic, and would put the price of gas and oil up. There is pressure from CBC for a whole new group of buildings — although the people want programmes, not buildings. Small business wants government subsidies, colleges and universities want money, everybody is shouldering up to the trough.

Who pays for all this? Well, I know a farmer who says he could be fairly well off if he was allowed to be but "I can't be thrifty anymore. Progress is pushed on me. The government keeps spending my money, for things I don't need or want." He knows who pays for all this. He does. So do I. So do you.

When are we going to tell governments to get back to their real job — governing?

What Makes A Woman Buy?

Sellers not only have to study consumer preferences but the degree of such preferences in order to press for more business. Dr. L. E. Drayton of the Economics Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, told an audience at the National Dairy Council annual convention, held recently in Montreal.

Preferences vary considerably in intensity at different times, he said.

A housewife buying milk in a store where two brands are sold may have tried both and found no recognizable differences between them. Nevertheless she buys one of the two and thereby makes a choice.

The most trivial thing may have determined her decision, such as a desire for variety. Many so-called "impulse" purchases are so motivated, showing that low intensity preferences are prevalent in shopping practices.

The same housewife choosing between butter and margarine may have strong convictions that butter is better for her and her family in choosing that commodity. She will probably continue to buy it instead of margarine even if it costs 10 times as much as the substitute because her intensity of preference is high, said the economist.

The forces leading to changes in buying habits are several, including merchandising practices, advertisements and social pressures. Becoming accustomed to specific foods is another powerful factor which indicates that the present strong preference for butter over its substitutes will weaken as time goes on, said Dr. Drayton. He thought it possible that housewives induced to use margarine for a few weeks would continue to buy it.

He described taste panels, sales tests and random sampling used as means of finding the characteristics of consumer preferences. Psychologists have recently entered this field claiming that the housewife does not know why she buys what she does buy so that direct questioning such as used in some surveys are useless.

They advocate questioning in depth in a kind of motivational research using tools borrowed from the psychiatrist and the clinical pathologist.

Such a method would be dangerous in unskilled hands thought Dr. Drayton, but motivational and general survey methods do have their uses, depending on how far a planned campaign is to go.

everywhere — the ill, the aged, the lonely, the newcomers. There are many varieties of human need, but need of friendship is one of the most vital. We all need friendship. Mrs. Holmes stressed the object of the W.M.S. and the need for more concern for others, not just in a local sense, but in a wider outreach of Christian fellowship and service.

"When A Child Asks"

This is a new programme heard Sunday morning over many radio stations. At the close of the morning session through kindness of Mrs. H. Davis and Mrs. N. McKibbin, a recording from one of these programmes was heard. Many a mother will benefit from "When A Child Asks," as she looks for the answer to some of those searching questions of children.

Dinner Hour

The noon hour was a time of happy fellowship as all enjoyed the delicious dinner prepared by the Centenary women and viewed a film strip shown by Mrs. Donald Baxter, of Bloomfield, and Mrs. McKibbin. It was a trip "From Sea to Sea with the United Church of Canada," where 1175 workers serve on our Home Mission Fields. This was much appreciated.

Highlights from the School for Leaders, held in Whitby, were given by Mrs. G. Wilman, a delegate. This was the 25th anniversary of the school and 100 full-time delegates were enrolled. Mrs. Wilman's report was much enjoyed by so many who never had the privilege of attending the school.

Mrs. Holmes presented a summary of ideas received from those answering the roll call, who made suggestions for a successful Auxiliary meeting. Some mentioned were — preparedness, punctuality, giving members opportunity to participate, try new methods of presentation, and make sure the service has a spiritual uplift.

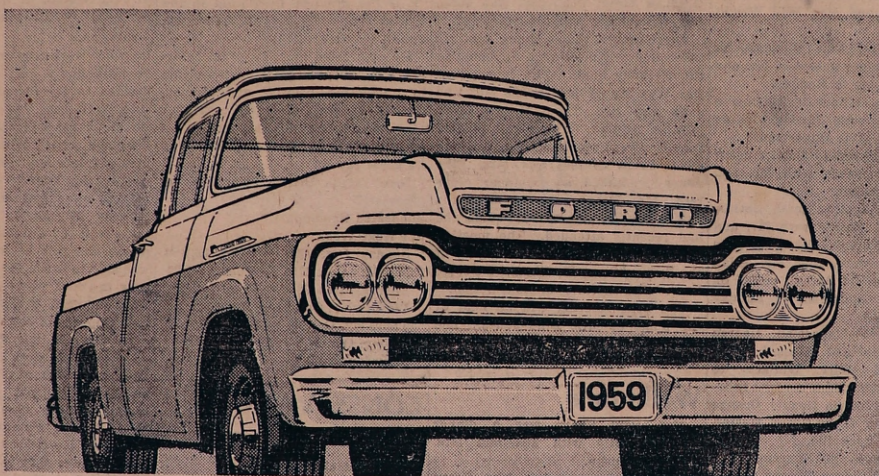

Throughout the day the Centenary women handled the registration. The morning offering was received by Mrs. Ross Dufosse and Mrs. Avery Martin, of Scott's Auxiliary, with Mrs. George Pollard making the dedication. In the afternoon the River Valley women took the offering. These were Mrs. Glen Bush and Mrs. Jack Bush, the dedication being made by Mrs. Ernest Carr. Mrs. Percy Sutherland's lovely solo, "I'm Sure I Shall Not Pass Again This Way," was much appreciated. Mrs. Harold Hancock kindly acted as organist for the day.

Appreciation

Courtesies were extended by Mrs. Ernest Phillips to the folk of Centenary, the guest speaker, the President of the section and members of the executive and all who had in any way helped to make the Rally a day of help and inspiration. Benediction by the Rev. R. Rikard brought to a close this day of happy fellowship.

FARMERS' TAKE COMPUTED

Canadian farmers last year received just over 44 cents of the dollar spent by consumers for farm foods, according to Z. Y. Yankowsky, Canada Department of Agriculture economist, in an annual study released by the Department.

The 1957 decrease in farmer's share was less than one per cent from the level of the previous year. The farm share of retail food expenditure has been declining since 1951, when it was 51 per cent.

Increases Compared

More detailed calculations for 14 selected food products, which represent roughly 70 per cent of the retail cost of Canadian farm food domestically consumed, showed that in 1957 retail prices of these products increased only 1.4 per cent and marketing margins were boosted by 8.2 per cent. The increase in farm prices in 1957 was the first since 1951 and resulted mainly from higher prices for dairy products and meat animals, particularly hogs.

FOURTH ANNUAL SALE OF PUREBRED HOLSTEIN CATTLE HAS RECORD AVERAGE OF $443

On Monday afternoon, October 13th, fifty-two head of purebred Holstein cattle sired through the Quinte District Cattle Breeding Association and consigned by breeders in the Quinte District, sold for an average of $443. The general opinion that this was the most outstanding group of cattle offered for auction by the users of the Quinte District Cattle Breeding Association was borne out by the sharp bidding at the sale. The fact that the first thirty heads sold for an average of $500 indicates that good quality and good demand were both present at this auction.

Top priced animal in the sale was a three-year-old heifer consigned by Spencer Griffiths, of Napanee. This heifer sired by the Excellent and well proven bull, Willowslope Man-O-War Pabst, sold for $810. to Mr. Francis R. Baker, of R.R. 7, Kingston. A two-year-old heifer consigned by Bertram Hoskin, of Cobourg, and sired by the popular Regasborne R.A. Royal Governor who has serviced almost 40,000 cattle in the Quinte District, was purchased for $725 by Mr. G. E. Greene, of Hawkherst Farms at Agincourt. A six-year-old cow, sired by the same bull and consigned by Mr. George Armstrong, of Newburg, sold to Mr. J. M. Macintosh, of Aurora, for $675. This same man purchased the top selling female in the 1957 sale. Allan McComb & Son, Belleville, consigned a two-year-old daughter of Rosafe Domino which sold for $700 to R. B. Glaspeil, R.R. 4, Bowmanville. Again this buyer has indicated his satisfaction in previous purchases in that he has purchased at least two of the previous sales with one of his former purchases later developing into a cow which graded Excellent.

Although several of the cattle were purchased by American bidders, it was interesting to see such a high percentage of the best consignments remain in the east-central region of Ontario.

This series of sales was instituted four years ago with Hays Farms Ltd., of Oakville, as Sales Managers. Any cattle consigned to the sale must be offspring of the Quinte District Cattle Breeding Association which conducts an artificial insemination service in the farming area stretching from Gananoque to Oshawa.

With the sharp interest shown at the Fourth Annual Sale, there is no doubt that this series will continue to be an annual affair.

MILK PRODUCTION GREATLY INCREASED

The year 1958 may go down in the history of Canada's dairy industry as the year of the great increase in milk production. D. B. Goodwillie, Canada Department of Agriculture told the Ontario Concentrated Milk Producers' Marketing Board at Toronto.

Milk production during the first seven months of this year, he said, was over seven per cent higher than for the previous record year. An increase of three or four per cent has been the pattern in recent years.

More Butter Made

Mr. Goodwillie, head of merchandising in the Dairy Products Division, noted that on the heels of the sharp increase came some difficulty in marketing products in which milk is used.

Butter production, he said, is currently about 17 per cent higher than tial between dry skimmed milk and other by-products; (3) Increase in milk production and its resulting effects on butter production — a much larger percentage of Canada's butter is made from whole milk rather than cream as it was a few years ago.

Mr. Goodwillie discussed in some detail the buying and selling of dry skimmed milk under Agricultural Stabilization Board policies.

THE FOOD BASKET

BAKE BREAD OR ROLLS ON COOL FALL DAY

How's your homemade bread? ... never tried it? ... then here's your chance! You'll be sure to make really good bread or rolls when you follow the simple directions given in this recipe from Canada's Kitchen. The recipe is sufficient for two loaves of bread or 2½ to 3 dozen rolls.

White Bread And Rolls

- 1 cup milk, scalded
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 1 tablespoon salt
- 3 tablespoons fat (not butter)
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 cup lukewarm water
- 1 package fast-rising yeast
- 5 to 5½ cups sifted all-purpose flour

To Make Bread

Combine hot milk, the 2 tablespoons sugar, salt and fat. Cool to lukewarm. Meanwhile dissolve the 1 teaspoon sugar in lukewarm water. Sprinkle yeast over top, let stand 10 minutes. Stir well, then add to lukewarm milk mixture.

Measure 3 cups flour into a bowl. Add blended liquids, combine thoroughly, then beat until smooth. Gradually stir in enough of the remaining flour to make a dough that can be easily handled and does not cling to bowl. Turn dough out onto an unfloured board, knead for 10 minutes, then shape into a ball and place in a greased bowl. Brush surface lightly with melted fat, cover and let rise out of a draft at 85 degs. F. until double in bulk — about 1½ hours.

Punch down to remove all gas bubbles. Divide dough into 2 equal portions, cover and let rest 10 minutes. Shape dough into loaves and place in greased pans — about 9"x5"x2½". Brush surface lightly with melted fat, cover and let rise until double in bulk — about 1½ hours.

Bake 30 to 40 minutes in 400 degs. F. oven if pan is tin, or if pyrex bread dish is used bake 25 to 35 minutes in 375 deg. F. oven.

To Make Rolls

Follow directions for bread but instead of making loaves, shape dough into smooth balls about 1½ inches in diameter. Make either pan rolls (about 16 to an 8"x8" pan) or individual rolls (in large muffin tins or on a baking sheet). Bake in 400 deg. F. oven for 30 to 40 minutes for pan rolls but only 15 to 20 minutes for individual rolls. If pyrex dish is used for pan rolls bake in 375 deg. F. oven for 25 to 35 minutes.

The main thing mother has to save for a rainy day is patience.

MRS. J. W. THOMPSON

The funeral of Mrs. J. W. Thompson, Saskatoon, Sask. (nee Lila Gertrude Hack) was held on Saturday afternoon, October 18th in Springbrook United Church and was largely attended by relatives and friends. The pastor of the Church, Rev. H. E. Beare, conducted the service.

The deceased was born in Guelph, Ontario, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hack. She was educated in Guelph Public and High Schools and graduated from the School of Nursing of the Hamilton General Hospital. After her graduation she was a member of the staff of McGregor-Mowbray Clinic where she acted as Historian. In 1936 she married and moved to Saskatoon. She was a member of Grace United Church and until her illness was an active member of the W.A.

On October 14th she passed away after being a patient in the hospital from February 1964. She was the last member of a family of four boys and six girls.

Attending the funeral were friends and relatives from Hamilton, Port Credit, Toronto, Teeswater, Peterboro and New Haven, Conn.

The pallbearers were Messrs Donald and Bruce Sharpe, Roy Thompson and Donald Buchan, of Toronto; R. W. Thompson, of Hamilton, and Clayton Thompson, Campbellford, all nephews of the deceased.

She is survived by her husband and a number of nieces and nephews. Interment in Springbrook Cemetery.

Stirling Horticultural Society Hints

Store tender bulbs soon after the first heavy frost. Most popular of these garden flowers are gladioli and dahlias. As soon as the foliage has been killed by frost, dig the plants gently. Choose a bright warm day to dig your gladioli plants because they should be left in the sun a few hours to dry before you store them. After they've dried, remove the foliage, stems and outer corm husks. Save both the main bulbs (called corms) and the tiny cormels. Put the corms in paper bags, labelled for each variety. If you sow them next spring in shallow trenches a half to one inch deep, they'll grow into large corms in two seasons. Spread the corms out in a cardboard carton or in flat wooden boxes, separating each layer by sheets of newspaper sprinkled with 5 per cent D.D.T. dust. Keep the corms in a cool dry place where there's no danger of frost.

Dahlias need slightly different treatment. Gently remove any soil from around the tubers, and pack each clump with dried wood shavings in cardboard cartons. Most important tip to remember: don't let the tubers dry in the sun, even for a few minutes. If you use wooden tags for labeling, remember that the stalks will shrink in storage and you may lose the tag unless to fasten it to a tuber as well. Keep the dahlias in a cool place where they won't dry out too rapidly. A cool cellar corner is fine, but keep them away from the furnace.

St. Paul's Auxiliary of the W.M.S.

Vegetables, fruit, gorgeous autumn leaves and late summer flowers made a beautiful setting for the autumn thanksgiving meeting held in the Sunday School room on the afternoon of October 14th.

A goodly number of members and a few visitors made up the attendance. Mrs. Harold West at the piano, played softly as the ladies gathered.

President Mrs. Geo. Carlisle opened the meeting by reading two thanksgiving poems and followed with prayer.

Mrs. A. Packman, leader of the "Co-operation with Younger Groups," which was responsible for the programme and worship service, took the chair. Mrs. H. Waite, Assistant Mission Band Leader, offered prayer. Mrs. W. Wilkins read a very worthwhile article "For What I Am Thankful." Mrs. Roy Tucker, Superintendent of the Baby Band, read the Bible Lesson taken from St. Luke 17 — the healing of the ten lepers. Thanksgiving hymns were heartily sung during the service.

Mrs. P. D. MacMullen, Presbyterian Literature Secretary, introduced the new study book, "Concerns of a Continent" and her comments on it and the books composing the "Book Shelf" gave her audience the impression that the next six months will be full of interesting study of christian progress in North America.

Mrs. X. P. Mayhew gave a short synopsis of a playlet presented by Mesdames Packman, Waite, Wilkins and Tucker. It was the story of Maria Newell, the first woman Missionary of the London Missionary Society to leave England and go to a foreign country to carry the gospel of Jesus Christ's love for humanity. It was an unheard of thing for a woman to do in the early part of 1800. Her family was horrified and scandalized, but she finally received her father's consent and blessing.

Mrs. Carlisle presided over the business period. Supply Secretary, Mrs. M. Bell, read a letter from the Presbyterian Supply Secretary, which gave a long list of needed articles for the Overseas Bale — children's games, drawing books, crayons, scissors, etc. for the wee ones.

Mrs. Sid Williams, reporting for the Community Friendship Department, informed her listeners that 29 house calls and one hospital call had been made during the past month. The Birthday Box was remembered by seven members.

Mrs. J. McCaughen, Superintendent of the Mission Band, invited several members to take part in the program. Nancy Wilson and Bonnie Bateman read interesting articles from the Mission Band study book. Marian Warren, Jane West, Bonnie Bateman, Nancy Wilson and Susan West, sang a very lovely number, "Lead Me Lord." Mrs. H. West accompanied them on the piano.

Mrs. Carlisle closed the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Packman and her group served delicious refreshments and a half hour was enjoyed socially.

Sidney Junior Farmers Meeting

The October meeting of Sidney Junior Farmers was held on the 16th at the Fourth Line Community Centre. Miss Frances Tucker, president, called the meeting to order. Roll call was taken by the secretary, Miss Wanda Mallory. An invitation was read to attend a dance in Picton from the Canadian Order of Foresters.

The members were asked for fund-raising ideas. On motion of Carl Richards and Ralph Dettlor, a hard-time sock-hop will be held at the Stirling Community Hall.

A donation was given to the 4th Line Community for the use of the hall. Arrangements were decided on for the next meeting which is to be Parents' Night. This meeting will be held in the middle of November at the 4th Line Community Centre. The committees for the banquet to be held in January were chosen.

The President extended a warm welcome to the Northumberland Junior Farmers, who were guests of the evening. The Northumberland Juniors showed their appreciation by contributing a humorous recitation and a quartette number. All enjoyed a sing song led by Miss Wanda Mallory and Mrs. Dick Moore.

Miss Kay Homan from Thurlow Junior Farmers, presented some very beautiful slides which she had taken on her trip to the British Isles. The club's thanks were extended to Miss Homan by the President.

The meeting was adjourned and everyone enjoyed lunch and dancing.

A Peterborough couple has received $1,000.00 in settlement of a motor vehicle accident claim against Melville Merrill, 27, of Campbellford.

Two 65-year-old chairs in the Ontario Legislature are getting political demotions. They are going from the provincial government seat in Toronto to the municipal government of offices in the Sudbury area.

One chair is destined for Sudbury city hall and the other for the municipal office of the United Townships of Neelon and Garson.

Senator Fraser In Auto Accident

Senator William Fraser, of Trenton, escaped injury Tuesday when the station wagon in which he was riding overturned on No. 2 Highway about 20 miles east of Cobourg. Nick Fraser, the Liberal Senator's nephew and his wife were also unhurt. Mr. Fraser said he took the car to the shoulder of the road to avoid a truck.

Accidents In Childhood

According to a survey by Rodney S. Fowler, M.D., published in the Canadian Medical Journal, received by the Health League of Canada, accidents have become a very important cause of mortality and morbidity in all age groups, but especially in childhood. In Ontario, from 1951 to 1955, they were the leading cause of death in all age groups from one to thirty-five years.

Approximately 1500 children die annually from accidental causes.

More children die annually from accidents than from the ten leading infectious diseases combined. The decrease in mortality from infectious diseases has made accident mortality relatively more important in recent years.

age group 1 to 14 years, there were on an average 11,734 deaths yearly due to infectious diseases and an average of 5004 deaths yearly due to accidents.

In the years 1942-1946 deaths due to acute infections dropped to an average of 5110 yearly, while those from accidents rose to an average of 7315 yearly. During this 20 year period there was an increase in the population of Canada from about 9,500,000 to over 12,000,000.

The article continues that these mortality figures show only a small part of the problem. It has been estimated that for every fatality due to accident there are 100 accidental injuries and 10 permanent disabilities.

Some have estimated that for every fatal accident there are 150 non-fatal ones. Of 20,902 admissions to the Hospital for Sick Children in Toronto during 1956, 2006 (9.6%) were due to accidents, poisonings and violence.

Statistics from Europe and the United States also indicate a similar immense public problem, which is receiving all too little attention at present.

In the year ending March 31st, 1958, the universal old age pension cost $473.9 million; in the year receipts from the special taxes earmarked for the fund totalled only $371.5 million.

75th Anniversary St. Andrew's Church, West Huntingdon

Rev. A. N. Miller, B.A., D.D., of Toronto, Delivers Two Outstanding Sermons

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, West Huntingdon, observed the 75th anniversary of its dedication on Sunday, October 19th by special services. Fine weather and large congregations marked this milestone in St. Andrew's history.

Baskets of lovely autumn flowers were placed in the church by Mrs. Donald Haggerty, Jack, Jean and family in memory of the late Donald Haggerty; Mrs. J. C. Sills and family in memory of the late John Chester Sills; by Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Tummon in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ashley and Percy Ashley; by Harper, Will and John Gay in memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gay; by the Fleming family in memory of the late Annie Fleming.

The services were conducted by the Rev. W. H. V. Walker, Pastor of St. Andrew's, who extended a warm welcome to the large congregations.

Rev. A. N. Miller, B.D., D.D., of Toronto, guest minister, delivered outstanding and timely messages.

Morning Service

In the morning service Dr. Miller spoke on the text "It is more blessed to give than receive."

The fastest growing development in the Canadian Churches, stated Dr. Miller is the Sector Project — a plan for the Every Person Canvass which will enlist 800 congregations in 12 denominations in 1958. The program receives its real impetus from the rediscovery of Christian Stewardship in our day. Giving is not to be regarded as just "to pay the bills," it is a part of our worship to God. Giving is an act of faith and a sign of grateful obedience as we remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive." Giving is the most persuasive, readily understood and incontrovertible form of Christian evangelism. Thus Stewardship conviction is doing a great deal to increase congregational revenues and their contributions to denominational missionary funds.

Evening Service

In the evening his subject was "Stewardship," which he classified under three headings, (1) The Stewardship of Time; (2) The Stewardship of Talent, and (3) the Stewardship of Treasure.

Born in this village, the son of the late James McGee and Elizabeth Downs, he spent his entire life in the community and was in his 83rd year. After completing his early education he learned the hardware business with the late Lindsay Meiklejohn and followed that occupation for seventy years. He was endowed with a pleasing personality and had a reputation for fair dealing in all his relationships. Of a kind and generous nature he was always ready to give a helping hand to those in need and was held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. In earlier years he took a keen interest in sports. He also served for many years as a director of the Stirling Agricultural Society.

He was a member of St. James the Minor Church in Stirling and took a most active part when health permitted in the work of the parish in all its phases. He was secretary-treasurer of the church for many years. Fraternally he was a member of the Knights of Columbus, No. 1008, in Belleville, and was also a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters.

Surviving are his wife, the former Justina Murray; two daughters, Mrs. Thomas (Bernadette) Shannon, Marmora; Miss Elizabeth (Betty) McGee, of Stirling; three sons, Murray McGee, of Toronto; Clinton McGee, of Whitby; Rev. Father William McGee, of St. Michael's Parish in Belleville, and one brother, Felix McGee, of Toronto. Also surviving are eight grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

In a report to the recent Lambeth Conference of Bishops of the Anglican Communion, Dr. N. J. Cockburn stated, "In the past the Bible Society has provided the Scriptures as the evangelistic instrument of the Christian Missions in the West, which have taken the Gospel to the ends of the earth during the last one hundred and fifty years."

These Missions have created all over the world the so-called younger Churches. In the future these younger Churches might themselves, as evangelizing bodies, be the main distributors of Scriptures. Nonetheless, viewed in terms of practical possibilities, they will necessarily require the continuance of the greatest historic Bible Societies, of which the British and Foreign Bible Society is the Mother.

The British and Foreign Bible Society will continue the maintenance of translation work viewed with world rather than local perspective, and production of Scriptures perfected by a century-and-a-half of practical experience with which to maintain the work of evangelistic distribution.

Two Peterboro Trains Dropped

Two CNR passenger trains completed their final runs between Toronto and Peterboro Saturday.

No. 92, northbound from Toronto, arrived at Stouffville at 10.10 a.m. Only a few passengers were aboard its three coaches. The three-coach No. 95, southbound from Peterboro, arrived at Stouffville at 7.38 carrying 12 passengers.

CNR officials said they will still be two daily passenger trains to Peterboro. Lack of passenger traffic was blamed for cutting the four daily runs to two. Four trains had been running for 75 years, officials said.

Another run, between Blackwater and Midland also will be withdrawn for the same reason, effective Monday.

Br. Commonwealth Chief Scout To Visit Trenton

Lord Rowallan, Chief Scout of the British Commonwealth, is due to make a visit to Trenton on Saturday, November 1st, during his trans-Canada tour of 23 Scouting Centres.

Although Lord Rowallan has visited Canada on two previous occasions, this will be his first visit to Trenton.

He was appointed Chief Scout of the British Commonwealth in 1945, for a 15-year period, and made his first official visit to Canada in 1946, and again in 1955, on the occasion of the 8th World Scout Jamboree at Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Hunting Safety Hints

Never point a loaded firearm at anything you don't want to shoot.

Unload idle guns — keep hunting a safe sport.

Accidents have no closed season.

Never discharge guns across roads or trails — it is both unlawful and dangerous.

Don't stand up in boats to discharge firearms — you may end in the lake.

There is no open season on humans — don't shoot them.

Keep guns and ammunition safely away from children.

Don't carry loaded guns in cars — it's dangerous as well as unlawful.

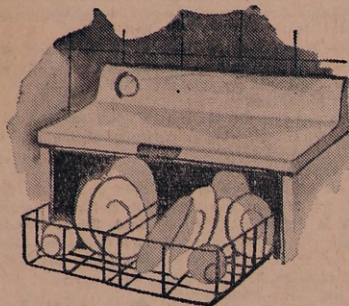

Check your gun for safety — you may not have another chance.

Make sure you're sure where your bullets are going. A .22 is dangerous for more than a mile, a high-powered rifle for several miles.

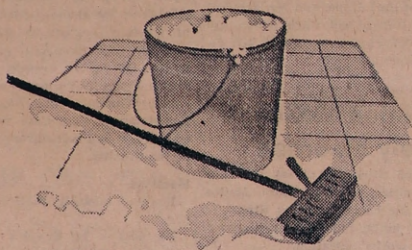

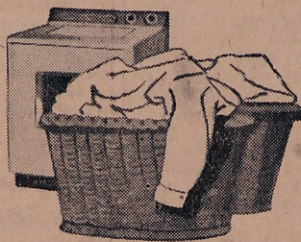

Don't pull that trigger until you have identified your target — remember that everything that moves is not legal game.

Don't use unprotected birds and animals for target practice — you can prove your accuracy much better on an established target.

Stirling Girl Director of W.M.S. Presbyterian Church

Canada has a color bar — but it's directed against Indians, says Frieda Matthews of the Presbyterian Church's Women's Missionary Society.

"She says it's a two-fold problem: 'Indians must prove to themselves as well as to white people that they can work in professions and do work requiring higher education,' she said.

It is part of Miss Matthews' job as director of national missions to give Indians the opportunity of education.

Operate Two Schools

The W.M.S. runs two schools for Indian children, one for 150 children at Kenora, Ont., and another for 172 children at Birtle, Man. Both are residential schools and at Birtle older children attend the local high school.

"The schools receive government grants, and our chief job is administration," said Miss Matthews. "The government appoints teachers, but we supply matrons and supervisors.

"We also try to persuade Indian children to stay at school until they have a first-class education and are able to take good jobs.

"Indians have proved they can work in trades such as lumbering and construction with as much skill as white people, and they can do the same in other jobs if given the opportunity and training."

Girls from the schools have become secretaries and teachers and some of the boys are working toward university entrance qualifications.

Born in Stirling

Miss Matthews was born in Stirling, Ont., and after attending Peterborough Normal School and taking deaconess training in Toronto, she spent a year teaching at Kenora Indian School.

Her next job as deaconess involved riding horseback around Willowdale, Alta.

"There were just mud roads in that area, and everybody used horses," she said.

After a few months of straddling a horse, Miss Matthews acquired a buggy for summer and a sleigh for winter travel.

Later she worked in Shaughnessy, a mining community near Lethbridge, Alta., and then in Edmonton.

She was appointed a national director in 1947.

The third Rally of Group Two (Centre Hastings) of the Belleville Presbytery Woman's Association was held on October 22nd at Eggleton United Church with Mrs. A. N. Pyear presiding.

The devotional period was conducted by Mesdames Laycock, Hoover, McKeown and Elliott of Bethel W.A. They chose as their theme, "Giving and Sharing our talents, time and money for the Lord." Mrs. Wm. McMullen, President of Eggleton W.A., very graciously welcomed the guests. Mrs. R. C. Jackson, of Madoc, brought greetings from the Presbytery and urged each organization to set up a standard for their W.A. and then their ministry would be complete.

The 1959 Rally will be held at Moira United Church with the new officers as follows: President, Salem; Vice-President, Stirling; Secretary, Eggleton; Treasurer, Wellman's.

Mrs. Angus Mumby, of Moira, contributed a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Gordon Foster. Approximately 100 ladies answered the roll call. These represented sixteen W.A.'s of the twenty-two in the section. They raised almost $10,000 in the past year by various means, including catfishing, bake sales, teas, bazaars, etc. They have visited the sick and older folk with about 1,500 calls reported. Most groups reported a great deal of re-decorating and general improvement to both parsonages and churches.

Mrs. Carman Sine had a splendid display of available literature and very capably presented it to the audience. The offering was gathered by Springbrook W.A. and dedicated by the President.

Mrs. D. P. Carruth
Guest Speaker

Mrs. R. A. Patterson, Stirling, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. D. P. Carruth, of Toronto. Mrs. Carruth has been a President of Toronto Conference W.A., a former Commissioner to General Council, and has been with the United Church Overseas Relief Depot for seven years.

Mrs. Carruth's subject, "What's My Line," very graphically portrayed her work at the Depot. Two full-time men are employed with herself and they are helped by volunteers from the W.A. and W.M.S. of Toronto four days a week.

She traced a bale of used clothing from the time it arrives until the time it has been sorted and sent on. She urged that the senders put their identification on their parcels and that each organization send the 10 cents per pound as it is needed to carry on the work. On October 20th fourteen tons of supplies had been sent out to the Arab refugees in Lebanon, and all further supplies will be sent to them for the balance of the year.

Boys' clothing always seems to be in short supply but with cash donations sent to her, she has been able to make special purchases of boys' wear.

Mrs. Carruth made special mention of a free film "The Long Stride" which is available either through the local minister or the M.M. representative to Presbytery. This is a film of the flight of the Hungarian refugees to freedom.

Work at the Relief Depot can be very rewarding for the volunteers. All were reminded that the needs and work of our own United Church should come first in our thinking. A very worth while address was concluded with the words of Jesus "In as much as you have done it to the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

Thomasburg W.A. presented the courtesy report and Mrs. Pyear pronounced the benediction. The ladies of Eggleton Church served a delicious afternoon tea.

October Meeting Salem W.A.

The October meeting of Salem Woman's Association was held in the evening. The President, Mrs. Murney Johnston, opened the meeting with the theme song and prayer. Hymn 577 was sung. The roll call was answered by 15 members and 7 children. Correspondence was dealt with.

The Missionary Thankoffering envelopes were handed in. It was decided that Mrs. Geo. Sine would give a musical number at the Bethesda bazaar and tea. The committee was instructed to look after the manner of a new chair purchased that was damaged. A quilting was planned for the hall in a week's time, each member to bring a box of lunch. It was decided to present Mrs. Stobart and family with fruit or pickles on the following Sunday.

Mrs. Murray Roy took charge of the programme. Hymn 584 was sung. The Scripture Reading, Luke 14: 11-19 was taken by Mrs. Bert Heagle and the meditation by Mrs. Harold Holden, followed by prayer by Mrs. J. B. Hagerman. Readings were given by Mrs. Orville Jackson, "Autumn" and by Mrs. Harry Mayo, "Giving Thanks." A musical number by Carol and Donna Geen was much enjoyed. A chapter from the study book "New Clothes" was read by Mrs. Frank McGee. It proved very interesting and gave many helpful suggestions. Mrs. Cecil Carter gave a reading "God Bless All Homes."

Mrs. Bert Sine expressed thanks to the hostess and her assistants for the enjoyable evening. All sang hymn 23 and repeated the benediction.

What Others Say

HOSPITAL INSURANCE COSTS MONEY

(The Rural Scene)

Before these words appear in print the majority of the people of Ontario will be paying into the Hospital Insurance Plan; and many of them will be feeling the pinch of paying for it.

No doubt some will be wondering whether or not they will be able to keep up those payments all the days of their lives.

Consider the case of the married man, with or without children, who makes his direct payments of $4.20 a month for, say five years, without needing any hospital care; and then finds himself no longer able to make such payments.

In direct payments to the Hospital Commission this man will have paid $252.00. In indirect payments, through the Provincial and Dominion Governments he will have paid twice that amount, making in all $756.00.

After paying in all this money he will still have no equity in the plan; and as soon as he is no longer able to pay his direct monthly contribution, he will lose all right to participate in the benefits. But his monthly contributions through the provincial and the Dominion Governments will still be taken from him, though they will not entitle him to any benefits. Those payments will have to be made as long as he lives in the Province.

In addition to that, he will have to help pay the deficits which are sure to face the commission in increasing volume as the years go by.

This Hospital Plan, with its compulsory payments and its ever-increasing costs, will long be remembered as an example of what can happen when the people allow the politicians to spend their money for them.

The town of Gimli, Manitoba, was named after the residence of the Icelandic god Odin and the word means "the place where all good and brave men go after death."

Dedication of Memorial Windows

A large number of visitors from other points attended the morning service at Mount Pleasant United Church on Sunday morning, when two memorial windows were dedicated. These were made possible by a legacy left by the late George F. Young, whose death occurred January 20th, 1952.

The window on the west of the chancel is a picture of Jesus with a child in His arms. The inscription reads: "In loving memory of Frank Young, his beloved wife Margaret and their son George."

The window on the east of the chancel is a representation of Holmen Hunt's picture "The Light of the World." It was inscribed as a tribute to the pioneers of Mount Pleasant congregation who erected the Church in 1871.

The windows were unveiled by Mrs. Elwood Johnson and Mr. Ross Hoad and the former read a tribute to the Young family.

The balance of the legacy is being applied on a Hammond electric organ, which will be dedicated on Remembrance Sunday.

The Pastor, Rev. W. G. Fletcher, gave a message on the theme, "Behold I stand at the door and knock." He also paid a special tribute to all the pioneers of the Hubble Hill district who settled this wilderness and built schools, homes and the church. The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Stirling Horticultural Society Hints

Chrysanthemums or 'mums as they are commonly called, are our latest flowering outside plant and are also good to dig and plant in pots or pans for indoors. This is a good practice because sometimes our winters are severe and the plants kill out. After they have finished blossoming, cut off and put in the coolest part of the cellar, water sparingly, if sprouts grow high keep nipped off. In the spring divide and transplant outdoors.

Mound up hybrid tea and floribunda roses now for winter protection. This is done by putting collars of heavy tar paper, bushel baskets with bottom cut out or open end boxes, to a height of 10 to 12 inches. These to be filled with dirt, preferably from the garden, making sure before freeze-up that the rain hasn't washed part of it away. After the ground is frozen an additional covering of straw, leaves or wood shavings may be applied and cedar brush may be placed on top.

Evergreens should be soaked deeply before the ground freezes to keep the needles from browning on windy winter days. After the ground freezes no moisture can soak to the roots.

A deep ruffle of nylon net was gathered diagonally to the lace skirt and the strapless bodice was topped by several folds of net. The only other trimming was satin bows. Her only jewels were pearls.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

FARMERS' PROBLEM

I spent the week-end with farm relatives. They have very nice homes, most of the modern conveniences, but they find ready cash hard to come by. Other farmers from the district dropped in and there was a good deal of talk about farm problems.

Earlier in the day, I had walked and driven about the countryside a good deal, in search of ducks. I had been impressed by many of the older buildings, built at least a generation ago. So when the problems had all been talked over at length, I asked a question that had been bothering me.

"How," I asked, "did the men and women who lived on these farms — in some cases your fathers or uncles — manage to build such impressive buildings? This house we are in, for example, with so many fine rooms for the family and also that big annex for staff. Was farming so much better then, before they had such good roads, so many fine implements, fertilizers, weed sprayers and the rest? Were they supermen, or is there something wrong with you?"

We were all friends and relatives, so I hoped to start a lively but friendly little battle.

Instead, my cousin said, "Say, I've often wondered about that myself. My forebearers must have been darn good farmers. If I had to build this house now, I just couldn't raise that kind of money. And if the wife had to go back to canning, curing, cooking and the rest of it on the old-fashioned range, without running water beside her, I think she'd head for the city!"

His wife laughed. "It's a good question," she admitted. "But I think I know how they did it. To start with, they didn't need a great lot of cash money. Everything they bought came cheaper, a lot cheaper. John put a metal roof on that old granary — and that roof alone probably cost several times more than the whole granary cost when his father started farming here. And you should see the bills we pay for gas and oil, for equipment, for clothing, for everything we buy! And believe me, one way or another we pay for our better roads and better schools and all the rest. It's impossible these days to decide to be thrifty — the government forces you to progress, even if it breaks you!"

Well, that started it! And much to my surprise, the farmers were more critical of themselves than I thought any group could be.

"We've concentrated on getting higher prices for our products — the toughest job. We'd have been better to resist the high prices of things we must buy. We ought to fight to keep taxes down, inflation in check, wages reasonable, so that we could sell our products and avoid surpluses. We've got to keep things in balance where an hour's labor on the farm can be traded for an hour's labor in the city. Otherwise, we're sunk. You just can't force high-priced products on foreign buyers."

THE FOOD BASKET

APPLE SAUCE, WHIP, SNOW AND CHIFFON PIE

It's time for new apples and for new apple recipes! From the Home Economists in Canada's Kitchen, here's what you might call a progressive recipe. You start with Apple Sauce, add a few ingredients and the results is Apple Whip; include gelatine and water and it becomes Apple Snow; or make a few more changes and you have a tempting Apple Chiffon Pie. Whichever one you make, you'll have 6 servings.

Apple Sauce

5 medium apples, washed and quartered
1 to 1-3 cup water
3 to 5 tablespoons sugar
Cook covered until tender, then sieve.

Apple Whip

(1) Into the hot apple sauce stir:
Few grains salt
1 teaspoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon lemon rind
Few grains nutmeg or cinnamon
Chill thoroughly.
(2) In the meantime, make a meringue using:

2 egg whites
4 tablespoons sugar

(3) Fold meringue into chilled apple sauce. Chill. Serve plain or with custard sauce.

Apple Snow

(1) Soak 1 tablespoon gelatine in 1 cup cold water for 5 minutes. Stir this into the hot apple sauce along with other ingredients listed in Step (1) of Apple Whip. Chill until firm, about one hour.

(2) Make the meringue as in Step (2) of Apple Whip.
(3) Beat chilled apple mixture until frothy, then fold in meringue.

(4) Turn into 5 cup mold and chill until firm, about 1 hour. Serve with custard sauce made from egg yolks.

Apple Chiffon Pie

(1) Follows Steps (1) and (2) of Apple Snow to make up apple mixture and meringue but increase lemon juice to 2 teaspoons.

(2) Whip 1/2 cup cream and measure 1 cup chopped walnuts.

(3) As in Step (3) of Apple Snow, beat chilled apple mixture until frothy but fold in the meringue and then add the nuts. Turn into baked pie shell and chill until firm, about 1 hour.

CONSERVATION NEWS

Forest Protection

Still another week with no fires and our total number for the season standing at 102. We are not entirely clear of the Forest Fire danger yet since some of our worst fire hazards in the past have developed in the two autumn weeks succeeding the fall of the leaves. However, with reasonable care on the part of hunters and others who are frequenting the woods and a fair break from the weather, we should not have much more trouble for the season of 1958 since the ground at the present time is quite on the wet side.

Fish and Wildlife

During the regular deer season in the Tweed District (November 3rd to November 15th, north of Highway No. 7 and November 3rd to November 8th, south of Highway No. 7 and north of Highway No. 401) there will be a special moose season. This will be the second such season for South-eastern Ontario, the first being in the Fall of 1956.

For several years now the Department of Lands and Forests have kept a watchful eye on the slow but steady increase of moose in the South with the hope of having enough to make a limited number available to Resident Hunters.

In 1956 the Department felt that the moose had increased sufficiently whereby an open season could be declared. In Southern Ontario (unlike the North) we can never expect a very high population of moose nor can we expect liberal hunting on a par with the North due to the number of hunters and the accessibility of the area. Therefore, as in 1956, the Department finds it necessary to restrict the hunt for moose by a licence fee of $26.00.

To safeguard our future moose population we not only have to issue a restricted licence, but must point out to the hunters that it is imperative for them to make out a return form which has been conveniently attached to the licence.

In order to point out the importance of this return form and our game management programme the restricted licence is sold only through our Department offices and Conservation Officers.

Young Bullheads Cross Border To U.S.A.

Fish have a way of getting around these days, other than through our river and stream systems.

The case of the hitch-hiking bullheads occurred this summer at Calabogie Lake when a visitor to Freddy Clements, Barryvale Lodge, on the east shore of Calabogie, packed up his fishing gear, placed the tarpaulin on his boat, loaded it on a trailer and headed for Elmira, New York.

Two weeks after arrival at Elmira the tarpaulin was removed from the boat and to the amazement of the American visitor, there before his eyes was a large school of young bullheads swimming around in a small quantity of water in the stern of his boat.

How did these little fish get into the boat? There was absolutely no fish in the craft when the tarpaulin was fitted in place, according to the visitor. Somehow the tiny fertile eggs of the adult bullhead must have found their way into the bottom of the visitor's boat while at Calabogie Lake near Renfrew, and with sufficient water to cover them enabled them to hatch. The visitor not wanting to see these little fish perish, released them to waters where adult bullheads were already present in his home state.

Chart your course before you start on your journey through life.

Hungerford Twp. Liquor Vote

J. Ernest Cassidy, Clerk-Treasurer of Hungerford Township, and Returning Officer for the liquor plebiscite on November 17th, has issued the Proclamation for the vote. Harvey Austin, proprietor of Stoco Lake Hotel, approached the Reeve and Council in early September, requesting a vote on a lounge, and also a dining lounge, and the application was granted. The campaign has been exceptionally quiet up to date, although the vote is only a little more than three weeks away.

Rabies On The Increase

During the last year there has been a great increase in the number of cases of rabies confirmed in that part of Ontario lying south of the French and Mattawa Rivers. The most crowded deer hunting part of the province lies within this area.

There is a danger that hunters taking dogs into the bush in the forest districts of Parry Sound, Pembroke, Lindsay Tweed and Kempenville may encounter rabid animals and their dogs may become infected.

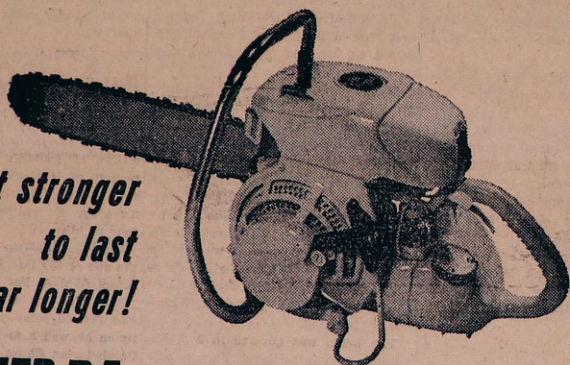

All hunters are urged to have their dogs vaccinated before going hunting this fall.

They should report any cases where foxes or other wild life have attacked their dogs to an Ontario Department of Lands and Forests Conservation Officer, a medical officer of health or a representative of the Health of Animals Branch, Federal Department of Agriculture so that such dogs can be kept under observation.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

INSULATION HOLDS COW HEAT IN

Dairy barns need insulation to conserve animal-produced heat, which maintains suitable temperatures for comfort and effective ventilation.

Insulating, says J. W. White, Field Department of Agriculture, must remain dry to be effective. It must be protected from the weather on the outside and from moisture on the inside.

Materials include: (1) Insulation boards and sheets; (2) Flexible blanket materials; and (3) Loose felt insulation materials.

Asbestos, cotton, straw, gypsum, hair, cork, foamed plastic, wood products, vermiculite, mineral wool and other substances are used in manufacturing various insulation materials.

Insulation may be nailed to the inside of studs in sheet form, tacked in between the studs or joists in bat form, or packed between the studs.

Air Movement

Moist air constantly moves from the inside of a dairy barn to the outside, and moisture-proof materials are valuable in keeping insulation dry. These include tough fibrous paper coated with tar, a thin metallic material glued to paper, or plastic films.

Thickness of insulation hinges on the number of livestock, desired barn temperature, and the outside temperature. A barn at Whitehorse, Yukon, would, for instance, require better insulation than one in Southern Ontario.

Concludes Mr. White: "A dry dairy barn that can hold the desired temperature in cold, stormy weather is a great asset and well worth the expense of proper insulation."

TEST SOIL NOW

Fall is the time for the farmer to test his soil in preparation for the sowing of crops in the spring. An accurate soil test now will save many dollars on the fertilizer bill, and add bushels to the crop next fall, discloses Prof. T. J. Heeg, soil specialist at the Ontario Agricultural College.

The Department of Soils at the College at Guelph has recently moved into a new soils building, where one of the features is a completely modern laboratory for testing soil samples for Ontario farmers. The laboratory is the most mechanized of its kind on the continent, and embodies many features aimed at speeding up soil testing procedures, and at the same time doing the job more accurately. Farmers will welcome the news that the capacity of the new laboratory is very considerably in excess of the facilities formerly available, and they are urged to take advantage of this new and improved service.

The whole programme of soil testing at the College is designed so that lime and fertilizer recommendations are made with a view to the most economical yields, rather than merely the largest yields possible without reference to economic efficiency.

Samples of soil for next year's crops of spring grains, corn, hay and pasture crops, and roots should be taken before the freeze up, and sent to the Department of Soils, O.A.C., Guelph. Sample boxes and information sheets are available from the County Agricultural Representative.

QUALITY APPLES ONLY EXPORTED TO BRITAIN

To safeguard her enviable reputation, Canada is allowing only top quality apples to be exported to the United Kingdom.

This restriction comes in advance of an international scramble for this year's limited United Kingdom quota. Countries on both sides of the Atlantic will be competing for a share of the business.

Fruit and Vegetable Division, Canada Department of Agriculture, will approve export of only "Canada Extra Fancy" and "Canada Fancy" grades of all varieties except Golden Russet and Yellow Newton, which may still be shipped at the minimum "Canada C" grade.

This is the second consecutive year the restriction has been put into effect.

The United Kingdom has announced an import quota of 3,750,000 bushels of apples from the Northern Hemisphere — leaving the door open to Canada, United States, Italy and other European countries.

Last year the U.K. set a separate monetary quota for North America. It totalled $3,500,000. Canada shipped 700,000 bushels, worth $2,100,000.

Crop Estimated

A strong overseas export market for Canadian apples dwindled during World War II and petered out altogether for some years. It was revived in 1949, but it was only four years ago that volume sales resumed.

This year's national crop is expected to total close to 15,500,000 bushels. United States, too, is looking for a bumper harvest and the European crop, a failure last year, also appears headed for a successful season.

POULTRY HOUSE VENTILATION

Why ventilate a poultry house?

Ventilation is necessary in poultry houses to provide a suitable environment for the birds so that maximum production may be realized, states Prof. F. H. Theakston, Department of Engineering Science, Ontario Agricultural College. This can be achieved by controlling temperature and humidity conditions with minimum effort and low cost to the farmer.

If the ventilation is properly designed and installed, it will (1) Keep the litter dry; (2) prevent moisture and frost from collecting on the walls and ceiling; (3) prevent sudden temperature changes; (4) eliminate drafts; (5) provide maximum air movement in warm weather to reduce the possibility of heat prostration; (6) remove ammonia fumes; (7) reduce corrosion and deterioration of the building and equipment; (8) aid in the production of clean eggs; and (9) remove dust.

The optimum temperature range for maximum egg production is 45 degrees Fahrenheit. For economy reasons, it is not always possible to maintain these temperatures, but temperatures of below 35 degrees and above 75 degrees should be avoided. Since poultry will not adjust themselves to sudden temperature changes, controlled ventilation with sufficient insulation in the building should be provided to ensure maximum protection for the birds.

Detailed information on ventilation in the poultry house is contained in Ontario Department of Agriculture Circular 287, available at the office of the County Agricultural Representative.

IS CANNING CROP IRRIGATION PROFITABLE?

Experimental evidence indicates that irrigation in the canning crop areas of Eastern Ontario will probably be well worthwhile financially, over the years, if given a proper chance. H. B. Heaney, of the Central Experimental Farm in Ottawa, reports that these canning crop areas generally receive inadequate rainfall during the period July 15th to August 15th. Only once in the past ten years, he says, has moisture been more than adequate during this period.

The effects of irrigation on peas and tomatoes has been studied at the Horticultural Substation, Smithfield, Ontario, and on a number of commercial canning crop fields. In these studies water requirement was determined by using an instrument to estimate the available moisture in the soil. Irrigation water was applied whenever the instrument indicated that the soil contained less than half its water holding capacity.

The tomato crop required 1 to 5 inches of irrigation water per season during the period July 15th to August 15th. In three years of trials at the Substation, yields of marketable fruit average 5 tons per acre higher with irrigation. This increase in yield would result in an annual gross income increase of approximately $175, per acre. In a number of trials on commercial fields, 1½ to 4½ inches of water increased marketable yields, an average of 6 tons per acre in 1956 and 4½ tons per acre in 1957. As well as increasing yield, irrigation in this area has depressed the incidence of Blossom-end-rot. While this problem cannot be shown to be due entirely to moisture relationships, water is one factor.

Gross returns of canning peas have also been increased by irrigation. In a three year period gross returns were increased by $130.00, $116.00 and $25.00 per acre at Smithfield. Each year water was applied only once just as the pods were filling. On six commercial fields over a two-year period, gross returns were increased by as little as $10.00 per acre on one property to as much as $150.00 on another property. The average two year increase was approximately $75.00 per acre. Care must be taken, especially when irrigating peas, to ensure uniform coverage. A variable coverage and the resulting variability in soil moisture may cause an uneven maturation of the peas.

In the past year the federal government's universal old age pension fund suffered a deficit of more than $100,000,000.

MILK PRODUCT PRICES

The Dairy Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture reports that the average price paid by creameries to producers in Ontario for the month of August was 63.82 cents per pound butterfat. This is a slight reduction from July, (63.93 cents).

The average Ontario price paid by buyers on the Stratford and Kingston Cheese Exchanges for cheddar cheese was 34.979 cents per pound for September, as compared with 34.927 cents per pound in August.

Honey Crop Expected Less This Year

The 1958 Canadian honey crop is expected to fall considerably short of last year's 32,051,000-pound total, according to a Canada Department of Agriculture forecast.

Seven out of nine provinces report a smaller crop. Prince Edward Island and New Brunswick, two of the smaller honey-producing provinces, are alone in predicting good returns.

British Columbia: Some 18,000 colonies are expected to produce a crop of 1,500,000 pounds — a drop of 15 percent.

Alberta: Production from 50,000 colonies anticipated to be somewhat below last year's 6,500,000 pounds.

Saskatchewan: About 115 pounds of honey on hives, indicating a 23 percent decline.

Manitoba: A six percent drop from the 1957 crop is anticipated, with production below the annual average of 5,000,000 pounds.

Ontario: Crop in most of the province is spotty and much below normal returns are expected.

Quebec: Forecast is for a total crop 25 to 30 percent less than in 1957.

SALT POISONING IN PIGS RECOGNIZED AS SEPARATE CONDITION

Recent studies have shown — apparently for the first time — that salt poisoning in pigs is a clear-cut and easily recognizable condition affecting the animal's tissues. However, some of the symptoms of the condition resemble other diseases. This makes proper diagnosis important.

The Ontario Veterinary College says that salt poisoning develops when a high level of salt is given to pigs without an increase in drinking water. Symptoms include blindness, twitching of nose and neck muscles, circling or running, and eventually unconsciousness.

Experiments at the Ontario Veterinary College have indicated that salt poisoning was most easily produced when water was severely restricted. The condition did not occur at all when fresh water was available continuously.

A Traveller's Note Book

Anyone interested in travel must have found interest in the tremendous strides made in the air and in air travel. That a flight with passengers could be made last night from London Airport to Ottawa without refueling is amazing, and that the Atlantic can be crossed in a little over six hours is more amazing still. There is a perfection in all this and we are reminded of the evolution of the airplane.

It seems to have passed through three stages — these are the sensual, the instrumental and the automatic. About the first, we recall how men used to say, "my plane went into a tail spin." That, of course was nonsense. The plane did exactly what the pilot directed it to do. Agreed that it was a good plane, it was absolutely obedient to his touch and did faithfully what the pilot asked it to do. The good pilot by his touch and a glance at his instruments could hold the plane in the air. It was when he failed at some vital point in the flight that the accident happened. The motorist of today is in the very place the pilot was when airplanes were first invented.

The second phase in the air is instrumental — a pilot named Johnson proved during the war that "blind flying" was possible, accuracy was guaranteed by instruments without any touch of the human hand. The final stage is reached now that the control of the plane and its behaviour is taken completely out of the hands of the crew. It is now true to say that whereas instruments were the emergency device a while ago, the pilot is now an emergency device, and the sailing of aircraft automatic.

I noticed a panel discussing the modern novel a few nights ago. I wonder they took the trouble. The modern novel has become the greatest bore, it is no longer funny; its activity seems to be that of making just either pleasant or ludicrous. In language once unprintable it wades through the muck and makes sex look silly and cruelly trivial. It has slid all the way from the absurd to the tedious.

Eggleton Mission Band

On Friday afternoon the October meeting of Eggleton Mission Band was held at the school.

Audrey Stapley presided over a programme which had been prepared by Sheila Clarke and Grant Reid and opened the meeting with a hymn, the Mission Band Purpose and the Lord's Prayer.

The worship centre had in the background a picture of a mission boat and in the foreground the Bible, offering plate and a group of polished red apples.

For the Scripture Lesson, Sam Danford read the 23rd Psalm. An interesting reading, "The Little Children," was given by Beverly Stapley. While Sharon Reide played soft music, little Teddy Clarke gathered the thank-offering envelopes. A poem, "Never Let Your Light Grow Dim," was read by Diane Prest. A duet sung by Marilyn Stapley and Sharon Reide was greatly appreciated.

The leader, Mrs. M. Clancy, gave a short talk explaining that the thank-offering money from Junior Mission Bands this autumn would be used for the special objective "Sunday School in the Home by Mail and Air." Mission boats like the one shown in the worship centre travel along the coast of Labrador and also along the British Columbia West Coast stopping at several points to leave supplies.

Mrs. Clancy also presented in story form the second chapter, "Japanese Doll," from the new study book "Ten Pairs of Shoes."

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Mrs. Reide. Wayne McMullen.

The choir with Mrs. Maurice Clancy as pianist, rendered the anthem, "How Great Thou Art." Mrs. Carl Reid, of Ottawa, contributed a lovely solo, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say" and Mr. and Mrs. Dyson rendered a beautiful duet, "Waiting On Jesus."

Three Deer Check Points To Be Operated

Three deer checking stations will be operated in the Tweed District of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests again this year to obtain vital statistics on the deer population and to determine the effects of the hunt.

The three check points will be located at the following points:

Arnprior on Highway No. 7; Kalaradar on Highway No. 41 and Eldorado on Highway No. 62.

The latter check station was previously located at Millbridge, but because of traffic hazards, etc., it was decided to relocate at the cheese factory at Eldorado, after first obtaining permission from the company manager.

All hunters returning home from the hunt on either week-end should make it a point to stop in at any one of the check points to have their deer aged and to give information required to assist department personnel with their deer management programme.
